

Date on back of photo: June 1980. Britta Kling with her sissor cutting art.

Jordan Gives Painting

ENCINITAS — Jack Jordan, an oil painter noted for his works depicting western history, will demonstrate his techniques at the June 2 meeting of the San Dieguito Art Guild. He is bringing a completed painting for the guild raffle.

Jordan has a studio in El Cajon, and his past art studies include the Coronado School of Art in San Diego and the Otis Art Institute. He has been a staff artist for the Des Moines Register and the San Diego Evening Tribune.

The meeting will be held in Ecke Hall at Quail Botanical Gardens, at 1:30 p.m. The public is invited and refreshments will be served.

A special miniature show will be presented at the Guild Gallery in June. It will be hung along with the main show and will be judged separately by Janet Disraeli, a San Diego artist. Disraeli owns the Art Collector Gallery in Old Town.

There will be a show hung in June at Ecke Hall by members. The Southwest Bank in Solana Beach will feature works by Marge Lewis, M. Woolman, Joan Drachman, and Joyce Patrick. Paintings will be on display June 1 through June 30.

San Diego Federal Savings and Loan will have a special art show displayed June 23 through July 10 in the community meeting room. Participating artists will greet viewers, and some will be working on art projects during the exhibit. The bank is in the Big Bear shopping center on Via De La Valle in Del Mar.

ENCINITAS

JACK JORDAN, an oil painter, noted for his work depicting western history, past and present, will be the demonstrator for the June 2 meeting of the San Dieguito Art Guild. Jordan has a studio in El Cajon, and his past art studies include the Coronado School of Art in San Diego and the Otis Art Institute. Jordan is bringing a completed painting for the guild raffle, and it promises to be superb. He has been a staff artist for the Des Moines Register and the San Diego Evening Tribune. The meeting will be held in Ecke Hall at the Quail Botanical Gardens, Encinitas, 1:30 p.m. The public is invited, refreshments are served ☐

San Dieguito Art Guild

LEUCADIA — The annual spring champagne open house of the San Dieguito Art Guild will be held 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, May 4, at 10388 Highway 101. The public is invited to "wear a flower and bring a friend."

Workshops in watercolors and oils will be held May 12 through 16, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. For more details about that seminar, call 753-4925.

Works by artists in the guild will be displayed in Southwest Bank in Solana Beach and in Ecke Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens, during May.

THE GUILD GALLERY

presents a special miniature show in June. This show will be hung along with the main show and will be judged separately by Janet Disraeli, a San Diego artist. Ms. Disraeli owns the Art Collector Gallery in Old Town, San Diego. Her fine arts education has been quite extensive and her credits in art are impressive. There will be a show hung in June at Ecke Hall by members. Also The Southwest Bank in Solana Beach will feature works by Marge Lewis, M. Woolman, Joan Drachman, and Joyce Patrick. Paintings will be on display June 1 through June 30 ☐

Paintings On Display

DEL MAR — The final event in the spring community series sponsored by San Diego Federal Bank is an art show by the San Dieguito Art Guild.

Paintings will be on display in the bank's community room June 23 through July 12 and guild members will be on hand each day to answer questions about paintings or the guild.

SOLANA BEACH

SAN DIEGUITO ART GUILD members Bertie Ficaro, Doris Thompson, Marge and Les Runyon will display their works at the Southwest Bank in Solana Beach through June 1 ☐

Jordan Gives Painting

ENCINITAS — Jack Jordan, an oil painter noted for his works depicting western history will demonstrate his techniques at the June 2 meeting of the San Dieguito Art Guild. He is bringing a completed painting for the guild raffle.

Jordan has a studio in El Cajon, and his past art studies include the Coronado School of Art in San Diego and the Otis Art Institute. He has been a staff artist for the Des Moines Register and the San Diego Evening Tribune.

The meeting will be held in Ecke Hall at Quail Botanical Gardens, at 1:30 p.m. The public is invited and refreshments will be served.

A special miniature show will be presented at the Guild Gallery in June. It will be hung along with the main show and will be judged separately by Janel Disraeli, a San Diego artist. Disraeli owns the Art Collector Gallery in Old Town.

There will be a show hung in June at Ecke Hall by members. The Southwest Bank in Solana Beach will feature works by Marge Lewis, M. Woolman, Joan Drachman, and Joyce Patrick. Paintings will be on display June 1 through June 30.

San Diego Federal Savings and Loan will have a special art show displayed June 23 through July 10 in the community meeting room. Participating artists will greet viewers, and some will be working on art projects during the exhibit. The bank is in the Big Bear shopping center on Via De La Valle in Del Mar.

San Dieguito Art Guild

LEUCADIA — The annual spring champagne open house of the San Dieguito Art Guild will be held 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, May 4, at 1038B Highway 101. The public is invited to "wear a flower and bring a friend."

Workshops in watercolors and oils will be held May 12 through 16, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. For more details about that seminar, call 753-4925.

Works by artists in the guild will be displayed in Southwest Bank in Solana Beach and in Ecke Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens, during May.

Paintings On Display

DEL MAR — The final event in the spring community series sponsored by San Diego Federal Bank is an art show by the San Dieguito Art Guild.

Paintings will be on display in the bank's community room June 23 through July 12, and guild members will be on hand each day to answer questions about paintings or the guild.

ENCINITAS

JACK JORDAN, an oil painter, noted for his work depicting western history, past and present, will be the demonstrator for the June 2 meeting of the San Dieguito Art Guild. Jordan has a studio in El Cajon, and his past art studies include the Coronado School of Art in San Diego and the Otis Art Institute. Jordan is bringing a completed painting for the guild raffle, and it promises to be superb. He has been a staff artist for the Des Moines Register and the San Diego Evening Tribune. The meeting will be held in Ecke Hall at the Quail Botanical Gardens, Encinitas, 1:30 p.m. The public is invited, refreshments are served.

THE GUILD GALLERY presents a special miniature show in June. This show will be hung along with the main show and will be judged separately by Janet Disraeli a San Diego artist. Ms. Disraeli owns the Art Collector Gallery in Old Town, San Diego. Her fine arts education has been quite extensive and her credits in art are impressive. There will be a show hung in June at Ecke Hall by members. Also The Southwest Bank in Solana Beach will feature works by Marge Lewis M. Woolman, Joan Drachman, and Joyce Patrick. Paintings will be on display June 1 through June 30.

SOLANA BEACH

SAN DIEGUITO ART GUILD

members Bertie Ficaro, Doris Thompson, Marge and Les Runyon will display their works at the Southwest Bank in Solana Beach through June 1.

San Diego Central Public Library
Corridor Gallery
820 E Street San Diego, CA 92101

Art Guild features M. Parker

Recent Paintings

MAVIS K. PARKER

ANITA

HOPE W.

The July program of the San Dieguito Art Guild will feature a lecture by artist Mavis Parker on "Art Ideas for Traditional and Non-Traditional Artists." Examples of how to select and develop ideas for painting will be shown.

Parker was born and raised in England and has studied art in both England and California. Her works have been displayed in numerous local galleries.

Sept. 2 - Sunday

1980

mavis k. parker

Art Guild features M. Parker

The July program of the San Dieguito Art Guild will feature a lecture by artist Mavis Parker on “Art Ideas for Traditional Non-Traditional Artists.” Examples of how to select and develop ideas for painting will be shown.

Parker was born and raised in England and has studied art in both England and California. Her works have been displayed in numerous local galleries.

Jordan Gives Painting

ENCINITAS — Jack Jordan, an oil painter noted for his works depicting western history, will demonstrate his techniques at the June 2 meeting of the San Dieguito Art Guild. He is bringing a completed painting for the guild raffle.

Jordan has a studio in El Cajon, and his past art studies include the Coronado School of Art in San Diego and the Otis Art Institute. He has been a staff artist for the Des Moines Register and the San Diego Evening Tribune.

The meeting will be held in Ecke Hall at Quail Botanical Gardens, at 1:30 p.m. The public is invited and refreshments will be served.

A special miniature show will be presented at the Guild Gallery in June. It will be hung along with the main show and will be judged separately by Janet Disraeli, a San Diego artist. Disraeli owns the Art Collector Gallery in Old Town.

There will be a show hung in June at Ecke Hall by members. The Southwest Bank in Solana Beach will feature works by Marge Lewis, M. Woolman, Joan Drachman, and Joyce Patrick. Paintings will be on display June 1 through June 30.

San Diego Federal Savings and Loan will have a special art show displayed June 23 through July 10 in the community meeting room. Participating artists will greet viewers, and some will be working on art projects during the exhibit. The bank is in the Big Bear shopping center on Via De La Valle in Del Mar.

San Dieguito Art Guild

LEUCADIA — The annual spring champagne open house of the San Dieguito Art Guild will be held 1 to 4 p.m., Sunday, May 4, at 1035B Highway 101. The public is invited to "wear a flower and bring a friend."

Workshops in watercolors and oils will be held May 12 through 16, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. For more details about that seminar, call 751-4925.

Works by artists in the guild will be displayed in Southwest Bank in Solana Beach and in Ecke Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens, during May.

Paintings On Display

DEL MAR — The final event in the spring community series sponsored by San Diego Federal Bank is an art show by the San Dieguito Art Guild.

Paintings will be on display in the bank's community room June 23 through July 12, and guild members will be on hand each day to answer questions about paintings or the guild.

ENCINITAS

JACK JORDAN, an oil painter, noted for his work depicting western history, past and present, will be the demonstrator for the June 2 meeting of the San Dieguito Art Guild. Jordan has a studio in El Cajon, and his past art studies include the Coronado School of Art in San Diego and the Otis Art Institute. Jordan is bringing a completed painting for the guild raffle, and it promises to be superb. He has been a staff artist for the Des Moines Register and the San Diego Evening Tribune. The meeting will be held in Ecke Hall at the Quail Botanical Gardens, Encinitas, 1:30 p.m. The public is invited, refreshments are served.

THE GUILD GALLERY

presents a special miniature show in June. This show will be hung along with the main show and will be judged separately by Janet Disraeli, a San Diego artist. Ms. Disraeli owns the Art Collector Gallery in Old Town, San Diego. Her fine arts education has been quite extensive and her credits in art are impressive. There will be a show hung in June at Ecke Hall by members. Also The Southwest Bank in Solana Beach will feature works by Marge Lewis, M. Woolman, Joan Drachman, and Joyce Patrick. Paintings will be on display June 1 through June 30.

SOLANA BEACH

SAN DIEGUITO ART GUILD members Bertie Ficaro, Doris Thompson, Marge and Les Runyon will display their works at the Southwest Bank in Solana Beach through June 1.

Jordan Gives Painting

ENCINITAS — Jack Jordan, an oil pointer noted for his works depicting western history, will demonstrate his techniques at the June 2 meeting of the San Dieguito Art Guild. He is bringing a completed painting for the guild raffle.

Jordan has a studio in El Cajon, and his past art studies include the Coronado School of Art in San Diego and the Otis Art Institute. He has been a staff artist for the Des Moines Register and the San Diego Evening Tribune.

The meeting will be held in Ecke Hall at Quail Botanical Gardens, at 1:30 p.m. The public is invited and refreshments will be served.

A special miniature show will be presented at the Guild Gallery in June. It will be hung along with the main show and will be judged separately by Janet Disraeli, a San Diego artist. Disraeli owns the Art Collector Gallery in Old Town.

There will be a show hung in June at Ecke Hall by members. The Southwest Bank in Solana Beach will feature works by Marge Lewis, M. Woolman, Joan Drachman, and Joyce Patrick. Paintings will be displayed June 1 through June 30.

San Diego Federal Savings and Loan will have a special art show displayed June 23 through July 10 in the community meeting room. Participating artist will greet viewers, and some will be working on art projects during the exhibit. The bank is in the Big Bear shopping center on Via De La Valle in Del Mar.

San Dieguito Art Guild

LEUCADIA — The annual spring champagne open house of the San Dieguito Art Guild will be held 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, May 4, at 1038 B Highway 101. The public is invited to "wear a flower and bring a friend."

Workshops in watercolors and oils will be held May 12 through 18, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. For more details about that seminar, call 753-4925.

Works by artists in the guild will be displayed in Southwest Bank in Solana Beach and in Ecke Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens, during May.

Paintings On Display

DEL MAR — The final event in the spring community series sponsored by San Diego Federal Bank is an art show by the San Dieguito Art Guild.

Paintings will be on display in the bank's community room June 23 through July 12, and guild members will be on hand each day to answer questions about paintings or the guild.

ENCINITAS

JACK JORDAN, an oil painter, noted for his work depicting western history, past and present, will be the demonstrator for the June 2 meeting of the San Dieguito Art Guild. Jordan has a studio in El Cajon, and his past art studies include the Coronado School of Art in San Diego and the Otis Art Institute. Jordan is bringing a completed painting for the guild raffle, and it promises to be superb. He has been a staff artist for the Des Moines Register and the San Diego Evening Tribune. The meeting will be held in Ecke Hall at the Quail Botanical Gardens, Encinitas, 1:30 p.m. The public is invited, refreshments are served.

THE GUILD GALLERY presents a special miniature show in June. This show will be hung along with the main show and will be judged separately by Janet Disraeli, a San Diego artist. Ms. Disraeli owns the Art Collector Gallery in Old Town, San Diego. Her fine arts education has been quite extensive and her credits in art are impressive. There will be a show hung in June at Ecke Hall by members. Also the Southwest Bank in Solana Beach will feature works by Marge Lewis, M. Woolman, Joan Drachman, and Joyce Patrick. Paintings will be on display June 1 through June 30.

SOLANA BEACH

SAN DIEGUITO ART GUILD members Bertie Ficaro, Doris Thompson, Marge and Les Runyon will display their works at Southwest Bank in Solana Beach through June 1.

PAINT RAG
July 1980

Board Meeting: June 28th, 10 a.m.

Regular Meeting: July 7, 1:30 p.m.

Regular Meeting This month's program will feature Mavis Parker who will present "Art Ideas for Traditional and Non-traditional Artists". Examples of how to select and develop ideas for painting will be shown. Ms. Parker was born and raised in England and has studied art in both England and California. Her works have been displayed in numerous local galleries.

July Show Paintings will be received on Friday June 27th and Saturday June 28th from now until 4 p.m. Please have all paintings properly framed and wired. The hanging fee is $2.50 per painting. Paintings to be hung in the July Quail Gardens Show will also be accepted at these times. $1.00 is the hanging fee. Muriel Rosten of LaCosta will be the judge.

June Show Janet Disraeli gave the following awards:

Oils	Watercolor & Other	Miniature Show
1. Gene Belbey	1. Elsie Marshall	1. Vada Kimble
2. Maxine Custer	2. Jeanette Peterson	2. Evalyn Bartholomew
3. Marge Lewis	3. Joan Drachman	3. Jeanette Peterson
	HM Kathy Young

Announcements Elsie Goss is gallery chairman for June and Mickey Woolman in July.

During June Pat McCoury, Marge Lewis, Joan Drachman and Joyce Patrick will display their art works at the Southwest Bank on Lomas Santa Fe Dr. In July the bank will feature the works of Edwin Adamson, Betty Sturdevan, Dolores Fear and Philippa Henschel. If you are interested in paintings for a month at the Southwest Bank please sign up in the main gallery. Each artist is asked to provide 3 paintings.

Featured artist in the main gallery in July will be Margaret Davis. The nominating committee has selected the following nominations for next years slate of officers:

Clara Fleming	President
Vada Kimble	Vice President
Doris E. Thompson	Corresponding Secretary
Gloria Winfrey	Treasurer

Additional nominations for these positions on the board will be called for at the July Meeting.

June 23 thru July 12 paintings from the Guild's membership will be on display during regular business hours of the San Diego Federal Savings and Loan in the Flower Hill Shopping Center. If you are interested in hanging a painting in this show bring them to the bank June 20 and 21 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. This has been an excellent show in the past. There is a 10% commission on all sales and no hanging fee.

Dates for the annual Starving Artists Sale have been selected. Mark August 23 and 24 on your calendar.

PAINT RAG
July 1980

Board Meeting: June 28th, 10 a.m.
Regular Meeting: July 7, 1:30 p.m.

Regular Meeting This month's program will feature Mavis Parker who will present "Art Ideas for Traditional and Non-traditional Artists". Examples of how to select and develop ideas for painting will be shown. Ms. Parker was born and raised in England and has studied art in both England and California. Her works have been displayed in numerous local galleries.

July Show Paintings will be received on Friday June 27th and Saturday June 28th from noon until 4 p.m. Please have all paintings properly framed and wired. The hanging fee is $2.50 per painting. Paintings to be hung in the July Quail Gardens Show will also be accepted at these times. $1.00 is the hanging fee. Muriel Rosten of La Costa will be the judge.

June Show Janet Disraeli gave the following awards:

Oils

1. Gene Belbey
2. Maxine Custer
3. Marge Lewis

Watercolor & Other

1. Elsie Marshall
 2. Jeanette Peterson
 3. Joan Drachman
- HM Kathy Young

Miniature Show

1. Vada Kimble
2. Evalyn Bartholomew
3. Jeanette Peterson

Announcements Elsie Goss is gallery chairman for June and Mickey Woolman in July.

During June Pat McCoury, Marge Lewis, Joan Drachman and Joyce Patrick will display their art works at the Southwest Bank on Lomas Santa Fe Dr. In July the bank will feature the works of Edwin Adamson, Betty Sturdevan, Dolores Fear and Philipa Henschel. If you are interested in paintings for a month at the Southwest Bank please sign up in the main gallery. Each artist is asked to provide 3 paintings.

Featured artist in the main gallery in July will be Margaret Davis.

The nominating committee has selected the following nominations for next years slate of officers:

Clara Fleming	President
Vada Kimble	Vice President
Doris E. Thompson	Corresponding Secretary
Gloria Winfrey	Treasurer

Additional nominations for these positions on the board will be called for at the July Meeting.

June 23 thru July 12 paintings from the Guild's membership will be on display during regular business hours of the San Diego Federal Savings and Loan in the Flower Hill Shopping Center. If you are interested in hanging a painting in this show bring them to the bank June 20 and 21 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. This has been an excellent show in the past, There is a 10% commission on all sales and no hanging fee.

Dates for the annual Starving Artists Sale have been selected. Mark August 23 and 24 on your calendar.

PAINT BAG
August 1980

Board Meeting: Aug. 9th, 10 a.m.

August Meeting There is no regular meeting in August. Our annual Starving Artist Sale will be held on August 23rd and 24th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The set-up fees for this show are: $3.00 for one day, $5.00 for two days. The maximum price for an unframed painting is to be $35.00. The hot dog stand will be selling refreshments. This has always been an excellent sale in the past and lots of fun too.

August Show Paintings will be accepted on Aug. 1st and 2nd from noon until 4 p.m. The hanging fee is $2.50. All paintings must be properly framed and wired. Entries for the Quail Gardens Show will also be received during these times, and the hanging fee is $1.00. The judge will be Carole Austen, an art therapist at USIU. She has paintings in museums all over the world and also in many private collections.

July Show Judge Muriel Rosten gave the following awards:

OILS
1. Pat McCoury
2. Greta Grossman
3. Elsie Goss
HM Esther Johnson

Watercolor/Mixed Media
1. Dolores Fear
2. Joan Drachman
3. Bonney Park
HM Virginia Sutherland

Announcements Elsie Goss will be the featured artist on the wall in the main gallery and will feature an original display of brass rubbings from England.

At the Southwest Bank on Lomas Santa Fe in Solana Beach, works by Bertie Picaro, Doris Cater, Diane Gonzolez, and Jeanette Peterson will be displayed for the month of August.

A two day workshop by Evelyn Woodward of Huntington Beach will be given at the Palette and Easel Studio, 1021 S. Hill, Oceanside. The fee is $55.00 and for further details call 722-9444.

Winner of the raffled painting by Marge Lewis at the San Diego Federal Show was Charles Mangeon. This show was a success as many paintings were sold and the Guild received excellent exposure.

We would like to welcome three new studio renters to our gallery. They are Phillipa Henschel, and Marge and Les Runyon.

The book Marine Painting and Watercolor by Edmond J. Fitzgerald is for sale from Dolores Fear, 481-9041, for $6.00 ($17.95 value). She ordered 2 copies by mistake.

Gallery chairman for the month of August is Vada Kimble.

Membership Application

Name _____ Phone _____
Address _____

Make check of $15.00 payable to the:
San Dieguito Art Guild
1038B Highway 101, Leucadia, Ca. 92024

PAINT RAG
August 1980

Board Meeting: Aug. 9th. 10 a.m.

August Meeting There is no regular meeting in August. Our annual Starving Artist Sale will be held on August 23rd and 24th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The set-up fees for this show are: $3.00 for one day, $5.00 for two days. The maximum price for an unframed painting is to be $35.00. The hot dog stand will be selling refreshments. This has always been an excellent sale in the past and lots of fun too.

August Show Paintings will be accepted on Aug. 1st and 2nd from noon until 4 p.m. The hanging fee is $2.50. All paintings must be properly framed and wired. Entries for the Quail Gardens Show will also be received during these times, and the hanging fee is $1.00. The judge will be Carole Austen, an art therapist at USIU. She has paintings in museums all over the world and also in many private collections.

July Show Judge Muriel Rosten gave the following awards:

OILS

1. Pat Mccoury
 2. Greta Grossman
 3. Elsie Goss
- HM Esther Johnson

Watercolor/Mixed Media

1. Dolores Fear
 2. Joan Drachman
 3. Bonney Park
- HM Virginia Sutherland

Announcements Elsie Goss will be the featured artists on the wall in the main gallery and will feature an original display of brass rubbings from England.

At the Southwest Bank on Lomas Santa Fe in Solana Beach, works by Bertie Ficaro, Doris Cater, Diane Gonzolez, and Jeanette Peterson will be displayed for the month of August.

A two day workshop by Evelyn Woodward of Huntington Beach will be given at the Palette and Easel Studio, 1021 S. Hill. Oceanside. The fee is $55.00 and for further details call 722-9444.

Winner of the raffled painting by Marge Lewis at the San Diego Federal Show was Charles Mangeon. This show was a success as many paintings were sold and the Guild received excellent exposure.

We would like to welcome three new studio renters to our gallery. They are Phillipa Henschel, and Marge and Les Runyon.

The book Marine Painting and Watercolor by Edmond J. Fitzgerald is for sale from Delores Fear, 481-9041, for $6.00 ($17.95 value). She ordered 2 copies by mistake.

Gallery chairman for the month of August is Vada kimble.

Membership Application

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____

Make check of $15.00 payable to the:

San Dieguito Art Guild

1038B Highway 101, Leucadia, Ca. 92024

Starving Artists

This year's Starving Artist's Sale, sponsored by the San Dieguito Art Guild, will be held Aug. 23 and 24 at the Guild's gallery, 1038-B, Hwy. 101, Leucadia. Guild president Marjorie Lewis (left) and assistant art chairman Vada Kimble preview some of the art in all media to be represented. Paintings sell for $35 and under, excluding frames and will include oils, water colors, batiks, pen and inks, and acrylics. Show hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Starving Artists

This year's Starving Artists' Sale, sponsored by the San Dieguito Art Guild, will be held Aug. 23 and 24 at the Guild's gallery, 1038-B, Hwy 101, Leucadia. Guild president Marjorie Lewis (left) and assistant art chairman Vada Kimble preview some of the art in all media to be represented. Paintings sell for $35 and under excluding frames and will include oils, watercolors, batiks, pen and inks, and acrylics. Show hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Starving Artists 1980

This photo on reverse:
San Dieguito Art Guild 1938-B No.
Hiway 101, Leucadia CA 92024

It may say SEPT '78 on back

