

PAINT RAG
September 1980

September Meeting will be on September 15 at 1:30 p.m. in the Ecker Hall in Quail Gardens, Encinitas. The program will feature Duane Light, a well-known and popular watercolorist from San Diego. Mr. Light has an excellent reputation as a teacher and we can look forward to an exciting demonstration of his techniques. There is a possibility Mr. Light will teach a watercolor workshop for our Guild members. The cost and dates will be announced later. Coffee and tea will be served.

September Show August 28th and 29th are the days to enter artwork from the hours of noon until 4 p.m. All paintings must be properly framed and wired. The hanging fee is $2.50. Paintings for the Quail Garden Show are also accepted at these times. The hanging fee is $1.00. The judge will be Mavis Parker. Ms. Parker was the demonstrator for our July meeting.
