

1982

Oral history from Britta Kling:

From 1980 to 1982 there was a group in Del Mar who formed a gallery/group called the Art Garden. They were a group who numbered at the least 6 and at the most 12. Their address was: 1442 Camino del Mar, Del Mar, CA.

In 1982 the landlord wanted them out of their building. They had to look for a new place. They looked and looked and spent a lot of energy. They even negotiated with the Lumber Yard shopping center that was just going in at that time.

They eventually found the Pannikin. Britta negotiated with Bob _____, the owner of the Pannikin. Not every one who belonged to the Art Garden came with the group to the Pannikin location.

At this time the members of the Off Track Gallery in the Pannikin split all the costs evenly among the members, depending on how many people belonged at that time.

Erika Torri (who is at the Athenaeum in La Jolla) is a good person to contact about this time in history. She would know all about this.

Rosie Daley was in the Guild in 1985. She was a hippie and did tie dye art. She became the cook for Oprah Winfrey.

Nancy Gordon, who is presently a ceramist in Cardiff, was also a member.

Handweaving, Tax Seminar Among Activities Of Local Artist Groups

By MICKEY WOOLMAN

ART GARDEN GALLERY features handweaving by Anki Vinberg from Feb. 6 through 26. Vinberg, formerly of Stockholm and presently residing in Leucadia, incorporates traditional techniques with modern interpretations to create finely woven wallpieces. Her subtle textures are made from a wide range of natural fibers. Fanciful "Pictures From the Valley" are featured in exquisite tapestries. Featuring original art and contemporary crafts, the Art Garden Gallery is located at 1442 Camino Del Mar, second floor Stratford Square building in Del Mar. Hours are 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Saturday, noon to 5 p.m. Sunday. For information call 755-6474.

TAXES AND THE ARTIST: The San Diego chapter of Artists Equity will present a program on Taxes and the Artist on Saturday Feb. 6 at 10 a.m. Jesse Sank will be the speaker, location is Glendale Federal Savings and Loan, 1910 Garnet in Pacific Beach. Sank holds a Master of Business Administration from New York University and is a Certified Public Accountant. His investment classes are broadcast over KPSB television and are offered at Rancho Bernardo Center for Continuing Education. This program is open to the public. For more information call 695-2812 or 755-6475.

Artist's Equity Association will present a non-fee, juried membership exhibition at Bard Hall, Unitarian Church, 4190 Front St. in San Diego. Henry Gardiner, former director of the San Diego Museum of Art will jury. Three $100 prizes will be awarded. Contributing artists may concurrently join AEA when they submit their entries, Friday, March 5, 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the lounge of the Unitarian Church. Work is limited to three wallpieces, 50 inches wide, ready to hang.

All work will be considered for sale unless marked otherwise. The Unitarian Church will handle sales with a 20 percent commission. Unaccepted work may be claimed by appointment at Mary Hale Studio, second floor Stratford Square, Del Mar (755-6475) or in San Diego, Lenore Simon, 3862 Mt. Acadia Blvd. Clairemont (279-4965). Artists are requested to include a self-addressed stamped envelope with their entry form. The exhibit opens with a public reception Sunday, March 7, from 1 to 4 p.m. and continues through March. For further information telephone 695-2812 or 755-6475.

The Feb. 1, Monday evening program of The Carlsbad-Oceanside Art League will feature Nancy Rupp, a North County artist whose exquisite Chinese Brush paintings are well known throughout the area, and maybe even the country. Rupp will demonstrate the use of the traditional materials for her art including the use of an ink stone and rice papers, various brush strokes, etc. Included in the demonstration will be a discussion on how to properly prepare and frame your work for exhibiting and selling purposes. Rupp is donating a painting for the league's raffle. Nancy resides in Encinitas and currently is a member of the San Dieguito Art Guild, renting a studio there, also, an active member of the Art Garden Gallery in Del Mar. Her works are also on display at her studio in Del Mar. This meeting is open to the public, Feb. 1, 7 p.m. in the Carlsbad Library conference room.

PAT McCOURY is one of North County's most talented artists and teacher of the arts. "Cast Your Bread Upon the Waters" is the story of Pat's development as a "painter." She tagged along with a neighbor who had been a bit of an artist in days gone by. The neighbor's doctor recommended as therapy that her neighbor take up painting again, so Pat went along to give her moral support. The neighbor, however, soon dropped out but Pat was "hooked" and has since become not only a leading artist and teacher, but also a fine sculptress as well.

She taught at Riverside Art Center 20 years ago (her first teaching experience), and has since taught at Corona Unified School District. Currently she teaches drawing and painting for MiraCosta College Adult Education Department, Tuesday morning and Tuesday evening, with classes resuming March 2. Having traveled abroad with her Air Force husband, McCoury has studied in Spain, England and France. Her teachers in this country have been Sergie Bongard, Bennett Bradbury, also Vincent Farrell in Laguna Beach and our own well-known local artist-teacher Robert Landry. Her works are displayed at La Costa Gallery, Carlsbad; Mariners Fine Arts Gallery, Dana Point Harbor; and Cove Gallery, Laguna Beach. McCoury is an active member of the San Dieguito Art Guild and has a studio gallery in the Oceanside Area.

THE CARROUSEL ART GALLERY will be featuring Glazed Tile Designs by Susan Beere Wilkerson for the month of February. Her designs span a period of time from her earlier works to her present modern bold designs. This also includes hand crafted Bas-Relief works. This special exhibit will open Feb. 6 through Feb. 28. For information call 753-8472. Gallery location: The Old Market, 1010 First St., Encinitas. Hours 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily except Sunday, noon to 5 p.m.

The San Dieguito Art Guild will hold its monthly meeting April 5, at 1:30 p.m. in Ecke Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens in Encinitas. You are invited to attend this meeting and to watch a demonstration in watercolor techniques, using acrylics, by Pauline Doblado. A native of Denver, Colo. Doblado has received most of her background training in art from colleges and private instructors in California. She is equally adept at portraiture, landscapes and abstractions drawn from nature. Doblado is at present a member of the National Watercolor Society's California branch, the San Diego Watercolor Society, and the San Diego Art Institute.

Doblado will judge the guild's April membership show, and is donating a finished painting for the guild's raffle. Refreshments are served at these meetings.

There will be a membership show hung in Ecke Hall in April. The featured artist of the month at the guild will be Pat McCoury, who promises us a very special exhibit this month. The guild is located at 1038B Highway 101 in Leucadia. Also on April 17 guild members will hold another "paint along" for the benefit of members and visitors. Displays will be set up outdoors at the gallery, and various members will be demonstrating and teaching to interested spectators their special ways to paint and create works of art. The "paint along" that was held for the first time on March 20 proved to be a modest success. Participating teachers and artists were quite happy with the end results. Everyone brought along their lunch, starting time was 10:00 a.m. and all went home thoroughly content by 4 p.m.

a.m. to 5 p.m. and it is located at 7917 Girard Ave. in La Jolla.

Monday, March 1, the San Dieguito Art Guild will hold their monthly meeting in Ecke Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens, Encinitas. Demonstrating in watercolor, will be Fallbrook artist, Ken Decker. Decker, a native Californian, (very rare these days) is also proficient in many other media, but prefers the fluency and challenge of working in watercolors. His landscapes are realistic, and produce an unforgettable part of each area he chooses to paint. His demonstration will be conducted on a vertical easel in order for the audience to better observe the individualistic way in which he works. The finished painting will be raffled off as Decker's donation to the Guild. The public is cordially invited to attend, meeting time, 1:30 p.m. On Saturday, March 20, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., a "First Day of Spring" Paint-In with free workshops being offered by various members of the San Dieguito Art Guild. Included in the list of participating members will be Pat McCoury, conducting an acrylic workshop with a still life. Pat's paintings vibrating with glorious colors are well known throughout the area. Nancy Rupp will be demonstrating several mat cutting techniques and framing (an art in itself). Rupp, noted for her Oriental art, will use inexpensive tools to do professional looking mats. Scrap mats and materials will be available for practice. Clara Fleming will have a workshop session with a floral still life in watercolor.

Bonney Park's how to do a watercolor of cats, Marge Lewis' animal portrait in pastel on velour paper, and Betty Sturdevan's painting a pastel of a cat, will be a temptation that any serious artist will find hard to resist.

I cannot decide which way to go, but may attempt a watercolor of a cat with Bonney.

The art guild is at 1038B, Highway 101, Leucadia. Gallery days are Tuesday through Sunday, 12:30 to 4 p.m. The featured artist of the month at the gallery will be Lorretta Phoenix. La Phoenix' paintings reflect a rare sense of humor not often found in fine art. Unusually creative, they include subjects gathered from all over the country. Her works will be displayed until April in the main section of the gallery along with the membership show.

*1st DAY OF SPRING PAINT IN!...Sat. March 20 from 10 to 4 pm. This promises to be a big day for the guild. There will be free workshops and classes going all day. All members are urged to come and participate. New members are especially invited. Bring your lunch...coffee will be provided by the guild. Among the working artists will be:

Pat McCoury...she will conduct an acrylic workshop with a still life. She is always eager to help anyone with any painting project.

Nancy Rupp...will demonstrate several mat cutting techniques and review framing. She will utilize several inexpensive tools that will result in professional looking mats. Scrap mats and materials will be available for practice.

Clara Fleming...will have a workshop type session with a floral still life in watercolor.

Bonney Park...will be drawing her delightful cats and people.

Marge Lewis...will be working on one of her lovely pastels of wild animals on velour paper.

CLASSES AND WORKSHOPS at Palette 'n Easel...there are a variety of classes: portraits, landscapes, workshops in snow scenes and desert scenes, in all media. Call 722-9444 for information.

SOUTHWEST ART MAGAZINE. To all those who subscribed to the magazine: I apologize for the long wait for the issues to arrive. First they misplaced our list and then there was trouble in the mail room. If you haven't received your Jan. and Feb. issues by March 1, please call me at 753-7403.

ARTIST'S EQUITY ASSOC. will present a non-fee, juried membership exhibition at Bard Hall, Unitarian Church, 4190 Front St. in San Diego. Henry Gardiner, former director of the San Diego Museum of Art, will jury. Three $100 prizes will be awarded. Contributing artists may concurrently join AEA when they submit their entries, Fri. March 5, 9 am to 5:30 pm in the lounge of the Unitarian Church. Work is limited to 3 wall pieces, 50" wide, ready to hang. The church will handle sales, with a 20% commission. STUDIO WAITING LIST...due to losing some fine artists and good friends like Marge and Les Runyon, who have moved to Sedona, AZ, and Lee Anson, who has moved to Newport Beach, we invite you to add your name to our Studio Rentor's list. The rents vary according to the size of the space you rent. Call Elsie Goss or the gallery to have your name added.

NEW MEMBERS to add to your yearbook:

Betty Strauss...2042 Mar Azul, Carlsbad...438-9577

Nancy Sutherland...P.O.Box 1208, Rancho Santa Fe...755-0866

Pat Swigert...13517 Calais Dr., Del Mar...481-9164

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

I mentioned at the last meeting that our guild has come upon desperate times. The rent has just been increased to $560 a month. In order to help defray expenses the studio rentors have agreed to an increase in their rent. Our membership could assist greatly in supporting the guild by participating regularly in our monthly shows.

The San Dieguito Art Guild, located in Leucadia, is another organization dedicated to helping artists, rather than delving into the legal and marketing problems of artists like Artist's Equity, the art guild helps over 100 local artists by exposing their works to the public through its art gallery.

The art guild hangs the works of its members in its gallery at 1038 Highway 101. If an art lover buys a work displayed in the gallery, the artist donates a small fee to the guild for the hanging.

Free workshops in a wide variety of painting and framing techniques are also offered by the organization.

The guild is sponsoring a "First Day of Spring" paint workshop on March 20 with various members of the organization offering instruction. Included in the program are demonstrations of the use of acrylics, watercolors, and mat cutting and framing.

with transportation of entries not picked up on time, which will be transported to the CWSS downtown after the close of the exhibit. There will be a $2 fee charged for all works that need to be transported, plus a $1 per day fee for all work remaining at CWSS after Monday, May 17.

The San Dieguito Art Guild will hold its monthly meeting April 5, at 1:30 p.m. in Ecka Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens in Encinitas. You are invited to attend this meeting and to watch a demonstration in watercolor techniques, using acrylics, by Pauline Doblado. A native of Denver, Colo., Doblado has received most of her background training in art from colleges and private instructors in California. She is equally adept at portraiture, landscapes and abstractions drawn from nature. Doblado is at present a member of the National Watercolor Society's California branch, the San Diego Watercolor Society, and the San Diego Art Institute.

Doblado will judge the guild's April membership show, and is donating a finished painting for the guild's raffle. Refreshments are served at these meetings.

There will be a membership show hung in Ecka Hall in April. The featured artist of the month at the guild will be Pat McCoury, who promises us a very special exhibit this month. The guild is located at 1038 Highway 101 in Leucadia. Also on April 17 guild members will hold another "paint along" for the benefit of members and visitors. Displays will be set up outdoors at the gallery, and various members will be demonstrating and teaching to interested spectators their special ways to paint and create works of art. The "paint along" that was held for the first time on March 20 proved to be a modest success. Participating teachers and artists were quite happy with the end results. Everyone brought along their lunch, starting time was 10:00 a.m. and all went home thoroughly content by 4 p.m.
