New show opens at Offtrack Gallery

Offtrack Gallery will feature new works by 10 member artists, Dec. 4 through 30. The exhibit, entitled "Felicity and Fantasy," opens with a reception, Saturday, Dec. 4, from 4 to 6 p.m.

Offtrack Gallery is the collaborative effort of 10 local artists. The group formerly operated for seven years in Del Mar's Stratford Square as Art Garden Gallery. The move to Encinitas has afforded expansion of the membership and exhibit space. Several of the artists operate their studios in the Encinitas area.

In addition to sharing gallery responsibilities, the Offtrack artists share an uncommon sense of community. Member Georgia Laris explains, "The support we share goes far beyond hand-holding. The strengths of the individual artists feed the group in a very efficient manner. In our show themes, we try to establish cues that will challenge each artist to redefine the parameters of her talent. The results are divergent and exciting. Our success with the triptych show this fall has spurred further plans for winter and spring."

"Felicity and Fantasy" focuses on the magic and pretense of the season. Offtrack Gallery features painting, glass, ceramics, fiber, prints, and folk art in the old train station at 510 North Highway 101, Encinitas. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily including Saturday and Sunday. For more information, call 942-3636.

San Diego Art Guild monthly meeting will be March 7 at 1:30 p.m. in Ecker Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens, Encinitas. Featured demonstrator will be Pat McCoury whose brilliant and exciting colors are her hallmark.

McCoury is a versatile artist working primarily in oils. Born in London, England, she came to the United States with her U.S. Air Force husband, as a "G.I. war bride" and subsequently through a "kindly" deed she became involved in the world of art.

In due course she taught at the Riverside Art Center, later in the unified school district and currently for MiraCosta College, all in the Adult Education Program.

Featured artist on the guild's north wall in March will be Vilma Malmberg. For details of the guild's March Paint-In call 753-8588. Gallery hours are 10 to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. Located at 1038B Hwy. 101 in Leucadia.

There is a Pastel Painting Society being formed. If you are interested in helping to form this society, please contact Margaret Davis, 314 Countrywood Lane, Encinitas, 753-2352. The purpose will be to promote pastel painting and sponsor workshops and shows.

Associated Senior Artists (55 years and over) is having a juried membership exhibition at Art El Cortes Gallery, 7th and Ash streets March 1 through April 1. Persons interested in joining or entering the exhibit call Ariel Madden (president) 298-5415 or Ben Sager, 279-8012. There will be a public reception held on March 8, from 4 to 7 p.m. The Associated Senior Artists group meets in Spanish

Village, Balboa Park, at Studio 21. Call the above numbers for time and dates.

Brandon Gallery of Fallbrook presents "Patterns On Paper," by Linda Doll, guest artist for the month of March. Linda is a past president of SDWS and has shown previously in Watercolor West art shows. Her studio is located in Rancho Bernardo. A public reception will be held in honor of the artist on March 5 from 2 to 4 p.m. Brandon Gallery is in the Cultural Village at 300 N. Brandon, Fallbrook. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Saturday 10 to 4:30 p.m. Phone: 723-1230.

Carlsbad-Oceanside Art League will meet at 7:30 p.m. March 7 in the Carlsbad Library, 1250 Elgin St. Chris Hlee Nugent will be the featured demonstrator, giving a short talk on common mistakes in painting and how to make a prize-winning picture. She will show slides, some of her own art work, and critique members' works brought to the meeting.

Nugent is a teacher at MiraCosta College and has a masters degree in fine art from UC-Davis. Print making and painting was once her forte; her prime interest at present is watercolor.

COAL will hold its Annual Membership Show at the Carlsbad Library from March 27 thru April 2. Also, member Carl Provder, 436-9602, gives individualized instruction in painting and design in watercolor for intermediate and advanced students. Call 436-9602 for further information.

The San Diego Art Guild will meet Monday, Feb. 7th at 1:30 p.m. in Ecker Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens, Encinitas. Kathy Young, a participating member of Gallerie 307 will be the featured demonstrator working in watercolor. A painting will be donated for the guild's raffle to offset the cost of the demonstration. The public is invited, refreshments are served.

Showing on the north wall in the guild's gallery will be works by Anna Mae Hanson. Also, at the gallery, members of the guild will hold a "paint-in" on Feb. 19, weather permitting. This is a great opportunity to come see your favorite artists in action and perhaps gain a little knowledge about how artists go about creating their "masterpieces."

The guild is located at 1038B, Hwy. 101 in Leucadia, hours are 10-4 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. Phone: 753-8588. The "paint-in" hours are 10-4 also.
