For immediate release:

Offtrack Gallery will feature Scherenschnitte by Britta Kling from February 7 through 28.

Scherenschnitte are scissor cuttings, a traditional German folk art. Ms. Kling was introduced to the art form in her childhood and has perfected the delicate technique. The images she presents are particularly alive because the artist works directly from nature, often sketching local flora.

Ms. Kling shares her craft on a segment of the television series "Craft as Art", produced by Thomas Muhlrad. The scherenschnitte presentation airs Feb. 8 at 4:30 p.m. on Cox Cable channel 24 and Jan. 18 at 9:00 p.m. on Southwestern channel 15.

Located in the old train station, Offtrack Gallery features painting, glass, fiber, prints, and folk art at 510 North Highway 101, Encinitas. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily including Saturday and Sunday. For more information telephone 942-3636.

San Dieguito Art Guild's monthly meeting will be held in Ecke Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens, April 4 at 1:30 p.m.

Artist Bob Garner presents a watercolor demonstration. Garner is known for his unusual technique of applying other media in his watercolors. One of his paintings will be raffled at the meeting.

Refreshments are served and the public is invited. There is a members' art exhibit hung in Ecke Hall.

Featured in the San Dieguito's gallery through the month of April will be works by Lorretta Phoenix. Phoenix displays a sense of comedy relief in some of her paintings. Other works are colorful and varied in the way she handles the medium.

An April paint-in is scheduled for April 9 at the gallery, and all artists are invited to bring their lunches and paints and join in.

The gallery is located at 1038B, Hwy 101 in Leucadia.

Joan Grine will have a one person show in April (Western Federal Bank in San Diego) and in May, (Western Federal in Pacific Beach).

San Dieguito Art Guild's annual spring Reception and Open House will be held Saturday, May 7 from noon until 4 p.m.

* This is a cash awards show and the awards ceremony will be at 3:30 p.m.

The Cash Awards Spring Show will be judged this year by Marge Gray of Gray's Gallery in Escondido. Gray is an outstanding artist and teacher of the North County area.

There will be an outdoor art exhibit, and champagne, punch, coffee, and refreshments will be served. The guild's gallery is at 1038B Hwy. 101 in Leucadia.

There will be no monthly meeting in May.

Congratulations to member Bonney Park for her recent first place award in the Carlsbad, Oceanside Art League Membership Show. Her award-winning watercolor is on display in her studio at the guild.

Following the awards ceremony will be the guild's raffle, in which one of our members donates a painting to add to the guild's collection.

This year Linda Bolognese has donated a reverse glass painting. The gallery is open six days a week from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. except Mondays.

San Dieguito Art Guild's monthly meeting will be held in Ecke Hall, Quail Botanical Gardens, April 4 at 1:30 p.m.

Artist Bob Garner presents a watercolor demonstration. Garner is known for his unusual technique of applying other media in his watercolors. One of his paintings will be raffled at the meeting.

Refreshments are served and the public is invited. There is a members' art exhibit hung in Ecke Hall.

Featured in the San Dieguito's gallery through the month of April will be works by Loretta Phoenix. Phoenix displays a sense of comedy relief in some of her paintings. Other works are colorful and varied in the way she handles the medium.

An April paint-in is scheduled for April 9 at the gallery, and all artists are invited to bring their lunches and paints and join in.

The gallery is located at 1038B. Hwy 101 in Leucadia.

Joan Grine will have a one person show in April (Western Federal Bank in San Diego) and in May, (Western Federal in Pacific Beach).

Painting to be raffled

Linda Bolognese of Del Mar shows the reverse glass painting she is donating for a raffle at the annual cash award show at the San Dieguito Art Guild, 1038-B No. Highway 101, Leucadia from 1 to 4 p.m., Saturday, May 7. A noted artist of pastels and oils, Bolognese is also a member of the Historical Society of Early American Decoration. This organization has a collection of old patterns which are copied exactly by members in the reverse glass, or tinsel, process and also on tin and wood. This old Oriental craft was brought to America from Europe around the late 17th century, and became popular during the Victorian era.
