OFFTRACK GALLERY (510 N. Highway 101, Encinitas): Scherenschnitte by Britta Kling will be on view with original art, contemporary crafts and folk art through Feb. 28. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily.

Friday, February 8, 1985

With five pairs of scissors, black cotton paper made in Germany—and 30 years of practice—artist Britt Kling snips intricate designs and traditional motifs into delicate works of art. A Leucadia resident for 25 years, Kling first became fascinated with scherenschnitte, or scissor cuttings, as a schoolgirl in Stuttgart, Germany. The popularity of the art has been erratic, but Kling has continued to perfect her work, first finding antique patterns in museums and library works, and now sketching from nature to cut wildflower and plant designs. An exhibition of 25 of her 5-by-7-inch to 16-by-20-inch framed works, each cut only once, is on display at the Off Track Gallery in Encinitas, where they will show through Feb. 28.
