Offtrack Gallery will feature scherenschnitte artist Britta Kling through Dec. 31. On display will be Kling's new series "Seven Swans a-swimming." Scherenschnitte are scissorcuttings, a traditional but nearly extinct German folk art. This technique is no longer taught, but works of the old masters can be studied at various museums in Germany and Switzerland. Wildflowers, Kling's specialty, are drawn directly from nature, but she also enjoys using traditional motifs. She never uses a pattern and each original design is cut only once.

Offtrack is also presenting its fourth annual holiday show, "Celebrate", Dec. 7 through 24. The exhibit opens with a weekend of celebration Saturday, Dec. 7 and Sunday, Dec. 8 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Media represented include handmade paper, weavings, Oriental brush painting, porcelain and raku pottery.

Art guild meets

The San Dieguito Art Guild will meet on Monday, Jan. 6, at 1:30 p.m., at Ecke Hall in Quail Gardens County Park, Encinitas.

Artist Regina Grafton will do a demonstration of painting with mixed media.

Refreshments will be served, and guests are welcome.

San Dieguito Art Guild's January art show will be judged by Fallbrook artist Regina Grafton. Also this month will be a mini show with paintings limited to 8 inches by 10 inches including frame. This will be judged by Garner too. Featured at the guild this month are paintings by the Western Pastel Society. This group meets once a month in Ecke Hall and has a gay old time; painting and visiting, helping each other with their work. They are always happy to welcome new members, so get out your pastels and join the fun. The guild is located at 1038 B Highway 101, Leucadia. Hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday, closed on Mondays. Phone: 753-8368.
