Annual arts festival at Encinitas Library

Coast Dispatch
Apr 1986

The public is invited to attend the Encinitas Arts Foundation's First Annual Arts Festival, 1 to 5 p.m., on Sunday, April 13 at the Encinitas Library.

The newly founded Encinitas Arts Foundation, in co-operation with the Friends of the Library, is sponsoring the event.

The artists exhibiting will be present on Sunday. Several will demonstrate how they produce the art for which they have gained national recognition.

Jack Brennan will show his video tape tour of the Louvre in Paris from 1 to 2 p.m. Local San Diego area art museums and galleries will be shown from 2 to 5 p.m.

Airbrush artist Rosie Daley will demonstrate her techniques for making mural and hand-painted clothing/textile art from 2 to 3 p.m.

Chinese brush painter Nancy Rupp will share her skills from 2 to 5 p.m. According to Rupp, "Chinese brush painting evolved from principles of calligraphy. Centuries ago, the Chinese considered writing and painting one art form."

Calligrapher Nancy Lee will demonstrate her skills from 2 to 5 p.m. Raku pottery artist Jay Shrake will demonstrate ceramic design from 2 to 5 p.m. He will exhibit variations of wheel-thrown bowls with an informal discussion on the history of Raku. Britta Kling will show her scissorcutting ("scherenschnitte") art beginning at 2 p.m.

Photographer Susan Blanchard will exhibit her black and white works and La Jolla artist, Lorraine Gibb will exhibit her handmade paper.

Local painter Carl Provder will exhibit the works that has placed him in "Who's Who in American Art." Some of his works are housed in collections at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington D.C., and at the Oakland Museum, as well as in the San Diego Museum of Art. He is a graduate of Columbia University, Pratt Institute and the High School of Music and Art in New York City.

There is no admission charge to the festival. For more information, call 753-2873.
