ART GALLERIES

OFFTRACK GALLERY, in the Old Train Station, 510 N. Highway 101, Encinitas, 942-3636, is a cooperative of nine local artists. "California Garden," a series of scissor cuttings (Scherenschnitte) by Britta Kling will be on display Sept. 1-Sept. 13. Gallery hours are 10am-5pm Tue-Sat.

The Cutting Edge

Scherenschnitte, you say? The same to you! The true meaning of this word is "scissor cuttings," an ancient art form.

Britta Kling, a longtime California resident who learned this art in her native Germany, will exhibit her latest cuttings at Offtrack Gallery, Encinitas, Sept. 1 through Sept. 13.

"California Garden" is a series of wildflowers and other flora sketched directly from nature and cut only once. Kling is one of the few artists trying to revive this delicate technique here. Each design is original and she never uses a pattern.

The gallery at the old train station, 510 North Highway 101, is open 10am to 5pm Tuesday through Sunday. For information, call 942-3636.
