

1992

The Guild moved to a location on Vulcan--Chuck Bradford's Frame Shop. Joan Grine was president. At that time Cindy Brenneman, Nancy Rupp and Pat Watkins had the Off Track Gallery. SDAG took over the name and the phone number for the Off Track Gallery.

Mother's Day Weekend Artists' Studio and Garden Tour started this year.

NO. This is not true. Need to find out which year the tour started.

They had a Spring Art Show and Gallery Open House this year for mother's day.

"The faculty of creating is never given to us all by itself. It always goes hand in hand with the gift of observation. And the true creator may be recognized by his ability to find about him, in the commonest and humblest thing, items worthy of note."

MONTHLY ART AND (attention) MINI SHOW IN JANUARY

Endings and beginnings - the essence, the rhythm of life itself are played out once again as we wrap 1991 and acknowledge 1992. Let us hope that the emerging year will be kind to our talents and gentle the economic vice that has restrained our commerce in this exiting bag of bones, otherwise known as 1991.

This month, in addition to our regular art show, we add the spice of a Mini Art Show, which for you who paint large offers an exercise in versatility and for you who paint little, well - what the heck, you'll have a leg-up on the competition. So let's begin with:

RULES AND REGS: Original work only, please. Class work, copied work and previous SDAG art show winners are not acceptable. Oil paintings must be dry. Unframed work will be refused and all pieces must be securely wired, with some slack, 2 to 3 inches from top of painting. The Art Committee has the right to refuse any entry that fails to meet SDAG policy requirements.

ENTRIES will be received between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. on the dates listed below. Three p.m. is the no-nonsense deadline.

TAKE-IN DATES: Friday, January 3 and Saturday, January 4.

ENTRY FEES: Paintings 36" or under: $3.00 per painting
Paintings 37" to 48": $5.00 per painting
Mini Paintings (8 x 10, including frame): $2.00 per painting

ENTRY OBLIGATION: One half day Gallery sitting.

NOTE: The bathroom is getting crowded again. It's such an indignity having fine art schmoozing with the toilet, doncha know?!

JUDGE AND DEMONSTRATOR for the January Art Show and General Membership Meeting is Thelma Speed Houston, who hardly needs an introduction considering her status in the art community. A graduate of the Pratt Institute and the School of Fine and Applied Arts, New York; a former textile designer for A. Sulka & Company, and Designer and Colorist for St. Andrews Textile Company, Inc. of New York, this popular and fine artist has certainly been down the road, as they say. She has racked up prodigious awards throughout the areas of New York, Connecticut and California wherein she has also held abundant one-man shows. She has taken Painting and Research Tours throughout the British Isles, France, and British Columbia, and held Lecture Demonstrations for the Association of Honolulu Artists. In other words, she has cut a wide swath through the fields of art endeavor. In a change of pace vis a vis SOAG's usual meeting demos, Thelma Speed Houston will hold a general critique at the January Membership Meeting - always an interesting and, indeed, a learning experience. You are invited to bring one painting for this exercise - your best, your worst, or anything in between. And yes, we are expecting a Houston painting for our raffle.

THE PAINT RAG

FEBRUARY 1992

"The root of everything (in painting) is drawing. The most practical road is to practice drawing first, since one can go more easily from drawing to painting than the other way around; that is, making paintings without drawing the necessary studies for them. I have restrained myself greatly and confined myself to drawing precisely because I know so many sad stories of people who threw themselves into it rashly - sought the answer in the process and woke up disillusioned without having made any progress and had got up to their ears in debt because of the expensive items they made a botch of. I was frightened and hesitant about that right from the start. I regarded drawing and still regard it as the only means of not sharing the same fate. And I have fallen in love with drawing instead of regarding it as a burden."

- Vincent Van Gogh

MONTHLY ART SHOW IN FEBRUARY

Now that 1992 has settled in, in earnest, the time has come, the Valrus said, to reaffirm a unique benefit exclusive to San Dieguito Art Guild members. And that is (drum rolls, please) our monthly judged art shows. In the absence of hardfact research, the following statement puts us out at the weak point of the limb; however, there doesn't appear to be another art affiliation in the surrounding environs offering this advantage. Advantage, you say. How so? Think of it this way. Once you establish the habit of participating, and remember - habits die hard - you are at least painting regularly. And that is forward motion.

RULES AND REGS: Entry requirements for the SDAG Monthly Art Show are as follows: All work must be original. Class work, copied work and previous SDAG Art Show winners are not acceptable. Oil paintings must be dry. Unframed work will be refused - all pieces must be securely wired, with some slack, 2 to 3 inches from top of painting. The Art Committee has the right to refuse any entry that fails to meet SDAG policy requirements.

ENTRIES will be received at the SDAG Gallery between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. (no later) on the dates listed below.

TAKE-IN DATES: Friday, January 31 and Saturday, February 1

ENTRY FEES: Paintings 36" or under: $3.00 per painting
Paintings 37" to 48": $5.00 per painting

ENTRY OBLIGATION: One half day. Wall Renters: One full or two half days. No exceptions. O.K., here's the dilemma. In order to expose and hopefully reach that higher attainment known as selling your paintings, the door of the SDAG Gallery must be open, as in 'welcome - come on in'. Now then, in order to have the Gallery door open, there must be a human being inside the Gallery, as in 'don't dare steal all these wonderful works of art'. Catch the drift? Therefore, in their supreme wisdom the SDAG Board figured that a fair exchange existed between entries and entrants. The entry hangs and the entrant sits. Get it? Let's bottom-line this subject. The entry of your paintings in monthly shows is conditioned by your responsibility of keeping the Gallery open to the public. If everyone practiced accountability in this matter, there would be no need for the Gallery Chairman to make ten thousand calls each month to fill up the calendar nor for your editor to use this as a forum for frantic barking. Please!

JUDGE AND DEMONSTRATOR for the February Art Show and General Membership Show is Nancy Lee Taylor - Pastel Artist. Nancy Lee Taylor, a midwestern transplant and daughter of prominent watercolorist Richard Lewis, comes by her talent naturally. Although she had studied art formally at Monterey Peninsula College in northern California, she has also trained under such nationally known artists as Daniel Green, Rex Brandt and Rafialino Diez, among others. She has been a resident artist in San Diego County for the last ten years doing portrait work as well as landscapes and seascapes. Her first love is portrait painting in pastel. Taylor has a small studio in her home and is always willing to share her ideas with fellow artists. Look for some of Ms. Taylor's work in Morgan Mallory's Corner Frame Show. Yes, a Taylor painting will be raffled at our meeting.

MONTHLY ART SHOWS DEPT: Please do not remove monthly Art Show paintings before Take-in dates for the next month's show. A Gallery with empty spaces is like a gap-toothed smile. If your painting is sold, please replace with another of similar dimensions. If you have a problem with that, call Art Chairman Elsie Goss - 433-8529.

ALSO: When monthly shows are taken down, paintings belonging to Wall Renters are placed against their wall space. Please remove these as soon as possible.

ALSO: Wall Renters who temporarily remove paintings for whatever purpose must rearrange their wall space to cover the vacancy. (Your editor was found guilty of this and I apologize.)

BOTTOM LINE: Schlock and sloppy is inadmissible in any Art Gallery. Let's not only administer to our own spaces but to the Gallery as a whole. Straighten crooked paintings, sweep the porch, water panting plants, take pride. It is, after all, your Gallery.

GLENDALE FEDERAL BANK EXHIBIT DEPT: Let it be known that a painting in this current two-month display was sold. Interested in hanging? Call Gallery Promotion Chairman Alta Gans at 438-4412.

THANK GOD DEPT: The ponderous eucalyptus trees which canopy and, yes, threaten SDAG's Gallery have been (wheu) trimmed.

Bradford Gallery bailed us out. With his multiple and fairly new businesses, it hasn't been easy. But as testimony to his commitment, the Paint Rag has reached your mailboxes pretty much on the money. For this assist - purely voluntary - we thank you, Chuck Bradford.

NEW PAINT RAG CIRCULATION CHAIRMAN DEPT: The very competent Joyce Patrick will take over this vital endeavor.

MAIN GALLERY PORTFOLIO DEPT: SDAG members are entitled to use the Portfolio for their shrink-wrap paintings. The terms: Three paintings for three months. 15% commission on sales. Please mark entry date on back of paintings.

CORRECTIONS DEPT: In the 1992 SDAG Yearbook, please change: LAMB, JACQUELYN to LANE, JACQUELYN.

NEW MEMBERS DEPT: The following are new SDAG members. Please add to your Yearbook:

Pearl K. Cadwell, Carlsbad
Robin Erickson, Solana Beach
Ann Walton, Encinitas

THE ARTIST COMMUNITY

The paintings of JOAN GRINE will be featured at the Rancho Santa Fe Library during the month of January.

ART CLASSES: Commencing Tuesday, February 4, Mira Costa College, Ocean-side, offers a Painting and Drawing Class from 9 to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. You may take one or both classes. No fee. Instructor: Pat McCoury - (619) 729-3809. Location: St. Michael's Church, Carlsbad. Tuesdays only. Last Class June 2.

WATERCOLOR CLASSES: Thelma Speed Houston. 10 sessions. Third Monday each month, starting January 20. 10 lessons - $30. 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. First session at Quail Garden, Encinitas. 724-5628 for details.

The BRANDON GALLERY proudly features artist Pauline Doblado whose show "Recent Works" will grace the gallery walls during the month of February. Ms. Doblado's love of color and texture is expressed in both figurative and non-figurative work. She is adept at portraiture, landscape and abstractions drawn from nature. Her sense of freedom is evident in her non-objective work which is sometimes structured yet always lyrical. Reception: Saturday, February 1, from 1 to 4 p.m. 119 North Main, Fallbrook, 723-1330.

VIVA (Vista Initiative for the Visual Arts) will host a presentation by Mary Livingston Beebe, director of The Stuart Collection of Sculpture at the University of California, San Diego. Including works by internationally renown artists such as: Niki de Saint Phalle, Robert Irwin, Richard Fleischner, Terry Allen, Nam June Paik, Ian Hamilton Finlay, Bruce Newman and William Wegman, the collection seeks to enrich the cultural, intellectual and scholarly life of the UCSD campus and the San Diego community of which it is a part. The public is invited to attend this enlightening, free presentation on January 28 at 7 p.m. at the Thibodo Community Center, 1150 Lupine Hills Drive in Vista's Shadowridge area. Call 726-3499 for details.

GALLERY VISTA continues its "love, life and art" exhibition through March 7. Featured artists for the exhibition include Mary Etta Lockwood, noted for her narrative works on paper; Dorothy Modafferi, displaying an exciting variety of styles and media from watercolor to
