THE PAINT

RAG

SEPTEMBER 1992

"I arrange my subject as I want it, then I go ahead and paint it like a child. I want a red to be sonorous, to sound like a bell; if it doesn't turn out that way, I add more reds and other colors until I get it. I am no cleverer than that. I have no rules and no methods; anyone can look at my materials and watch me as I paint - he will see that I have no secrets. Shall I tell you what I think of the two qualities of art? The first is that it cannot be described in words, and the second is that it can never be imitated ... a work of art must seize you, wrap you up in itself, carry you away. A painting is the means by which an artist conveys his passions; it is the current which he puts forth which sweeps you along in his emotions ..."

MONTHLY ART SHOW IN SEPTEMBER

The Art Committee, whose authority is just south of God, has the right to refuse any entry that fails to meet SDAG's entry requirements.

Bring your entries to the Gallery between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. (no later) on the dates listed below.

JUDGE AND DEMONSTRATOR for the September Art Show and General Membership Meeting is Susan Avery Clark whose statement of philosophy follows. "I love the glowing, transparent, fluid and sometimes unexpected quality of watercolors. I see my paintings as an extension of my life and my photography a public visual diary. In my work I utilize my strong drawing and design ability and enjoy the play of light on a subject. As a painter, teacher and mother, my life can sometimes seem hectic. I relish and search for the moments of relaxation or tranquility around me, yet paint them with passion. I get inspired by these quiet visual moments in my surroundings, quite often involving dramatic sunlight-children (sic) playing or talking, a cat basking on a rock, a flower from my garden, the multi-colored glow of feathers on my chickens."

Susan Clark's background in education, art achievements and commissions is impressive enough to suggest a highly accomplished member of the art community. She earned her BFA in Drawing and Painting at Arizona State University, graduating with High Distinction in 1973. She made the Fine Arts Honors list from 1970-1973 and took graduate studies at ASU, UCSD and San Diego State U. She is proficient in graphite drawing, oils, pastels, colored pencil, mixed mediums and is currently concentrating on watercolor. She will demonstrate in watercolor - in her words - "most likely it will be chickens or a white object such as a duck or a flower." Umm.
