Causing screams of wild-eyed fright.
Snarling monsters roam the street
Hearts turn cold and so do feet!
Spooky shapes all slimy green
Shucks! It's only Halloween!!

MONTHLY ART SHOW IN OCTOBER

"The time has come, the walrus said, to speak of many things." While cabbages and kings may make scintillating conversation, right now, at SDAG, we must, shall we say, walk the talk. This refers, of course, to months of dialogue concerning SDAG's major endeavor. Moving to a new location. And, comrades, we are there. And thus, we now - walk the talk.

Shall we begin by first addressing the pertinence of our Monthly Art Show - still in place, as you can see.

RULES AND REGS: Original work only. Not acceptable are: copied work, class work, unframed pieces and previous SDAG art show winners. Oil paintings must be dry. Wire paintings with multistrand wire, 2" to 3" from top so that painting hangs flat against the wall. The Arts Committee has the right to refuse any entry that fails to meet these conditions. PLEASE NOTE THIS CHANGE: From henceforth, there will be a limit of two paintings per entrant in all SDAG monthly art shows.

ENTRIES will be received at the new location of the gallery at 835 North Vulcan in Leucadia between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. (no later) on the dates listed below.

TAKE-IN DATES: Friday, October 1 and Saturday, October 2.

boffo project. Chaired by Gay Fisher, it is truly a bold face winner. We've got sixteen upper-strata artists and their work places - indeed, what's not to like? However, to shove this effort into success category requires a definitive synergy factor within the membership. We've got great flyers, featuring a pen and ink of our new Gallery by Betty Sturdevan, and tons of tickets to sell, priced at $12 for the Saturday and Sunday Tours and Champagne Reception both days at the Grand Opening of our new Gallery. We desperately need hostesses at the studio artist's homes. We need fruit and crackers for the Reception. Bottom line: We need an 800 pound gorilla push to shove us into hallelujah status. Please don't let us down.

Although time consuming, we have had interesting learning experiences in this search. The year has been a productive one. Our shows are getting better and better, our receptions were well attended, and many members participated in several outdoor shows. The monthly meetings with the inspirational painting demonstrations tions were enough to get me painting as soon as I got home. We are so fortunate to get talented guest artists to share their techniques and ideas with us. We are constantly getting new members, and we have several new wall renters. Next month is the beginning of a great new era for our gallery. I look forward to it with enthusiasm. Thanks to my wonderful board and thanks for a great year. Let's all keep supporting the SDAG.

GOODBYE

JOAN GRINE has taken the San Dieguito Art Guild on a long journey. This past year has been a rough ride in which she has faced the kind of turmoil that often attends the decision to make change. It takes a lot of courage and strength to conquer the white water rapids of seemingly insurmountable obstacles, conflicting opinions, doubts, resistance. But Joan Grine traveled this rugged path with grit, intelligence and grace. For this and for her hard work and leadership we thank her most sincerely.

HELLO

It is with pleasure and certainly with an anticipatory sense of excitement that we welcome our new President Patricia Watkins. Having witnessed her incredible organizational prowess in the structuring of our enormously successful Rummage Sales and, indeed, not to mention the skill in which she has orchestrated her own efficacious art career, it is safe to project a fast-forward year of dynamism, growth, fiscal amelioration, increased visibility - and, be the good Lord willing (and a push from Pat) - S-A-L-E-S!

GREAT NEWS DEPARTMENT

THEY know WE'VE moved! Who? Our patrons, of course! First sale was made almost in transition - the second, immediately thereafter. AND both from our Monthly Art Show. If our clients beat you to the Gallery, come on by. Comments we've been hearing: "Wow; Uplifting; Upbeat; Looks like a Gallery." Come see for yourself what our very capable and innovated (not to mention hardworking) Move Committee did for the benefit of all SDAG members.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Just like the many Presidents before me, I strive to carry on the good parts of our established traditions and procedures. So many people have worked hard for many years at San Dieguito Art Guild, and the closer I get to the reins the most appreciation I feel.

If there's a good time for change it would be now with a new board, new gallery, and a changing membership. We are losing some old friends and gaining some new ones. We must continue down the path that leads forward, cautiously, and with good intentions.

My long-term goals are to improve gallery location, fund raising, and sales. My short-term goals are making the new gallery on Vulcan a pleasing environment for customers and members.

What follows is some information on my personality which may make it easier for you to interact with me. I'm no Einstein. I'm a plodder. Everything I've learned has come slowly. I cannot remember too many things at once, so I feel most comfortable with things written down. The "good news" is that (thanks to my Mom's genes) I'm highly motivated. I worry a lot. I've already lost several pounds (yea) and several hours (ugh) sleep over the job facing me. I find myself somewhat of a dictator as I hate conflict and long meetings and yet feel badly when I realize I've hurt another person's feelings. If you call me on the 'phone, try to keep it short. I work from instinct and make the best decisions after having time to mull options around in my head. This is me for better or worse; I hope our association will be cheery and bright. - Patricia Watkins.
