Janet Finney, JUNE ARTIST-of-the-MONTH

"Scenes of San Diego" will feature watercolors painted primarily on site when Janet regularly joins San Diego Watercolor Society artists on their weekly paint-outs in and around San Diego County. Janet's Show will present a fresh approach to familiar scenes rendered in her own unique style and capturing local landmarks from her point of view. Her lovely florals have been admired by members and Gallery visitors over the years and this Show is another dimension in her continuing artistic growth. With a B.A. in Art from San Diego State U., she has continued her studies with classes and workshops with such notable artists as Barbara Necchis, Jan Kunz, Ian Ramey, Ken Hosmer, Carol Orr, Phil Austin, and Susan McKinnon Rasmussen. Janet has taught watercolor techniques at the Solana Beach Park & Recreation Dept. and is a member of San Diego Watercolor Society, Western Federation of Watercolor Societies, and the Carlsbad Oceanside Art League. Janet will host a reception on Sunday, June 9, from 1 to 4 p.m. and cordially invites SDAG members and friends to attend.

Char Cee (aka "Top Dog") did a superb job coordinating the Julian trip, which started with hosts Robbie Laird and Bill Porter greeting us at Wingdance, the unique dwelling architecturally designed by Robbie and created in collaboration with Master Craftsman Bill. The shape and form of the design are taken from the interaction of native flora and fauna and made of the indigenous rock and materials on which it rests. The circular floor plan, arched and elliptical windows, pay tribute to the red-tailed hawk's sky-circles and the pine. After touring every nook and cranny of this remarkable structure and refreshing ourselves with coffee and goodies, off we went to paint or reflect. Bill later shepherded us to the James Hubbell grounds and expertly guided us through the fantastic dwellings created by this most ingenious man. Words cannot describe this extraordinary setting of buildings, studios, sculptures, stained glass, tiles, and peaceful aura. Meeting and talking with James Hubbell in his studio was an experience not to be forgotten. We are grateful to Bill Porter and Robbie Laird for giving so generously of their time the entire day and for Char Cee's advance planning.

AND NOW, sign up for the next escapade of "Taking SDAG on the Rode!" On TUESDAY, SEPT. 10. Char Cee has arranged a private tour of the Huntington Gardens, High Tea and Luncheon at the Museum, which Char describes as a banquet beyond imagination, with painting or Gallery viewing the remainder of the day. COST: $55. Send check to the Gallery, Attention: Char Cee Colosia, to reserve space or call Char Cee.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER:

Nominating Committee for New Officers: Thank you to Hildegard Stubbs, Head of the Nominating Committee, Diane Smith and Ellen Long for their work in finding us a new Board. We still have some positions to fill: Treasurer's position should be voted on by the membership. We are hiring a bookkeeper for the first time in our history due to the volume of work. The bad news is that it will cost us, the good news is the Treasurer will not have nearly as much work to do. Please give Loretta Phoenix a call if you think you might like to help out with this important position. It is wonderful to see new names on the Board. First time elected Board Members are: Basia Koenig, Char Cee Colosia, Lisa Jackson, Jacqueline Bissell, Harriet Shoup, and Judiann Shannon. This is what an organization like ours is about--constantly bringing new artists on board and making them part of the organization--please think about how you can fit a position on the Board into your busy schedule. Just remember I have no time for this either--but the Guild will not work without all of us lending a hand. The following are non-elected positions that we need filled: Trip Assistant, Corresponding Secretary, Telephone Tree, Art Chairman Assistant, Renters' Orientation, Gallery Chairman Assistant, VP Computers Assistant, Facilities/Field Day Assistant. Call me if you want to accept one of these positions or if you need to know more about the duties of the open positions.

Clothes Line Sale to Benefit the Encinitas Library, August 24: This is our last big event for a while. Pearl will provide the details--I would encourage you to participate. We don't have many opportunities to sell our work together. I hope you will come out on the 24th and support a worthwhile cause.

--Cyndy Brenneman

The Clothes Line Sale is Saturday, Aug. 24. We will start setting up 7 a.m. on the grounds surrounding the Pannikin. Joan Grine is coordinating the "hanging on the clothes line" part so you need to be there early with your work. All pieces are to be shrink wrapped (except 3-D, of course) and prints and photos are okay. Also, if you have shrink wrap bins bring them along and 3-D exhibitors should bring their display areas. We've discovered with the Sunday morning Art-on-the-Green Shows that the more exhibitors there are, the more people we attract to view and buy our art work. Artists should plan to remain the day and be responsible for their own sales with buddy-system arrangements made between artists if someone is not able to stay the full day. Bring along your sales books or whatever method you use to track sales. Remember, nothing is to be priced over $100 and 10% of all sales will benefit the Encinitas Library. This should be a fun way for all of us to get together and let "THE WORLD" (or a part of it) know how great we are and also help the community in which we do our business. The flag being designed and sewn by Pat Watkins and Betty Sturdevan will be in place for the event.

We cannot bring this SDAG year to an end without commenting on the outstanding work of the members of the Board. We've come a long way toward making the Guild a highly visible part of the community. Our Gallery not only attracts new friends and clients but those of us who staff the Gallery recognize our "regulars" who come in like clockwork to see what's new. We've made many positive changes in the physical layout of the Gallery, updated the credit card system, produced some professional brochures and postcards, received publicity and media photographers for the 30th Anniversary Party, Sundowner we hosted, and the Small Image Show, received and accepted invitations to participate in the opening days at the Carlsbad Flower Fields and the Del Mar Fair and thoroughly enjoyed two wonderful bus excursions. Without an active Board and help from members these accomplishments and others not specified here would not have occurred. While a lot of time and work has been dedicated to the Guild by these members, there always was a lot of laughter and great times associated with it all. A special acknowledgment goes to our President, Cyndy Brenneman, who continued the tradition of building on the work done by her predecessors while bringing in and encouraging fresh ideas to enhance Guild activities, image, and membership. Our members say THANK YOU, CYNDY, for your leadership, dedication, good spirit and for bringing about a very successful year. To all the '95-'96 Board Members and member volunteers, Thank You!
