

All lay away purchases will now be kept by the artist rather than at the Gallery since the Gallery does not have adequate storage space. Artists should notify their clients that they have the work of art but that payments are still to be made at the Gallery.

The Sundowner we hosted was a great success with many new people being introduced to our Guild and Gallery. In addition, there was a fine article about the Sundowner and the Gallery in the August issue of the NORTH COAST NEWS published by the Encinitas North Coast Chamber of Commerce. Thank you to all the members who brought food and helped to host the event.

September Monthly Show Take-In: Friday, Aug. 30, 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. (NO LATER) Usual take-in rules and regulations apply.

The September Show judge and demonstrator will remain a mystery until the General Meeting on Thursday, September 5, at 1:30 p.m. when the demonstration takes place. Program Chairman Char Colosia tells us, "We should hold on to our chairs and get ready for this unusual form of art that is displayed in the most elegant households in the area." A three-dimensional artist working in a rare art form, the artist has received numerous awards for his unusual pieces, including "People's Choice Award" and 2nd Place, Three-Dimensional category, at the Del Mar Fair. In addition to his unique art form and creativity, he is a recreational therapist working with teens at risk. This unusual event takes place Thursday, September 5, 1:30 p.m., Ecke Hall. I'm curious about this different demonstration too!

With 44 entries in the August Monthly Show, congratulations to Sue Geller's selection for awards to the following artists:

SEPTEMBER ARTIST-of-the MONTH: HILDEGARDE STUBBS

"El Camino Real Revisited" takes us along the California Mission trail with paintings depicting old remaining Missions and how they look today. Who could better capture the essence, beauty, and history of these historic landmarks than Hildegard Stubbs who went on her own painting expeditions and captured the charm of the Missions first hand. A true plein-air painter, she is exhilarated when setting up her easel "right there" where it is all before her. Having attended the Laguna Beach School of Art, Palomar and Mira Costa Colleges, she continues to study with outstanding watercolorists. Hildegard joins SDAG's Monday Morning Painters in addition to painting outdoors with friends or alone, if need be. But painting is such an important part of her life that she is at it every free minute, wherever she is. She has had numerous solo exhibitions and her paintings have won many awards including the Grumbacher "Gold" Award. Hildegard's contributions to the success of the Guild are enormous and her energy appears to be indefatigable. Hildegard invites all members and friends to travel vicariously along the Mission Trail and to meet with her at her reception on Sunday, September 15, noon to 5 p.m.

All lay away purchases will now be kept by the artist rather than at the Gallery since the Gallery does not have adequate storage space. Artists should notify their clients that they have the work of art but that payments are still to be made at the Gallery.

Members are invited to exhibit at the Sunday Art-on-the-Green Shows. A-frames are available and the only fee is for credit card sales. Call Michael Gaszynski for more details.(942-5234).

To exhibit at the Prudential Real Estate offices in Encinitas, bring your painting to the Monthly Show take-ins and Joan Grine will hang them at Prudential. Be sure that your painting is clearly marked with your name, title of work, and price. Joan will no longer accept work at the Board or General Meetings. Thank you, Joan, for doing this for us.

We have been asked not to use the outdoor stairwell to leave the Gallery except in cases of emergency. This is strictly an emergency exit and the fire alarm is activated whenever the back door is opened.

Artists are allowed THREE items in the Shrink Wrap Bin. All pieces must have a foam core backing, labelled with artist's name, title of work, medium, price and, if a print, an explanation of the kind of print. If you have a problem with shrink wrapping, an "envelope type" wrap is available which looks professional and is easy to use. Call Loretta Phoenix, 727-9674, for info and price. In addition, a list of the THREE items you have in the bin is to be placed in the "Shrink Wrap" file, left hand drawer of the desk. Please note: the total number of pieces you can have is THREE, regardless of size or which bin they are in.

Call Char Cee, 721-7352, to make your reservations (Non-members welcomed) for the SDAG bus trip to the Huntington Library, Art Collections, and Botanical Gardens in San Marino. The trip is TUESDAY, SEPT. 10. We will have a private tour of the Huntington Gardens followed by High Tea/Luncheon at the Museum. You'll have free time in the afternoon to paint/sketch the Gardens or tour the art collections and/or Library. Cost for the entire day is $55.

1996-97 Membership renewal is due now and the dues are $35 per member; $50 for family membership (2 per household). Dues were increased because of cost increases incurred by the Guild.

Change of address for Membership Roster:
Mary Trawick, 3890 Vista Campana #40, Oceanside, 92057, 433-5305.

After waiting for months for the ARTS MAGAZINE, Michael Gaszynski got the bad news which in their words is: "Due to lack of community support, the ARTS MAGAZINE is being put on the shelf." The good news is that the check to cover the August ad has been returned and Michael will contact the artists who contributed to the July/August ads and refund arrangements will be made. Thank you, Michael, for the time and effort you put forth in generating the ads, working with the editor, and arranging for refunds.

Congratulations to Michael Seewald whose photograph won Best of Show in the Colored Photography Category at the Del Mar Fair; Cathy Breslaw whose painting, "Celebration", was juried into the San Diego Watercolor Society's 1996 International Show and which can be seen at La Vida Del Mar during August; and to Cyndy Brenneman whose painting, "Inspiration", won an Honorable Mention in the San Diego Watercolor Society's July Showcase Gallery Show and is presently in the August Monthly Show at our Gallery.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER:

It has been a long two years, but very interesting! My thanks to all of you who have helped make the San Dieguito Art Guild the success it is. Who would have thought that we would become a role model! But we are not resting on our laurels, we will have a financial report in the October issue of the Paint Rag that indicates our success. We have yet to finish our Business Plan. A projection for completion is January, 1997. Our new Gallery Committee will be bigger and better and, hopefully, we can spend some money and use a bit of elbow grease to fix up the Off Track Gallery. I have bragged to everyone in town about what a great group we have. No controversy, no bad feelings, just a lot of artists trying to make a go of it and introducing art to the community. I do believe the community is proud of us too! Your Board will continue to work hard on your behalf, so please give your support when asked. This has been a great year for me and I thank all of you for my personal success as an artist and as your President.

--- Cyndy Amon Brenneman

We Salute you,
Cindy

Cynthia Brenneman, has worn many hats in her young life. Her works of art are a study of life itself. As past president of SDAG naval officer and funny lady!

(And there shall be Light)
Michael Seewald, award winning photographer and world traveler for his photos - also finds time to staff
the SDAG gallery and keep the lights burning brightly!!
Thanks
