PRESIDENT'S CORNER:

WELCOME TO ALL OUR NEW MEMBERS! We are delighted to have you as a member of our Art Guild! You should be receiving your new Membership Directory toward the end of November. If you are desperate to call any of us before then, there are still some old directories collecting dust in the hallway at the Off Track Gallery.

Update - Holiday Sale Kick Off: Our Holiday Sale Kick Off has been changed from Saturday to Sunday, Nov. 17. Please be sure to mark this change on your calendars! Also, everything in the Gallery will be 15% off with the exception of note cards. Remember to be at the gallery by 7:00 a.m. to set up your work in the yard around the Pannikin. We will be holding a raffle during the Holiday Sale, so we are currently looking for a painting to raffle from our general membership (Wall/Floor Renters are excluded). Whoever donates the painting for the raffle will be exempted from working at or for the gallery for 4 months!

Upcoming Events: I am thrilled with our new board! Everyone is doing their best to make this a great organization. We have discussed our budget for the year and are planning the following events: (1) Painting Trip to Calafia Hotel, in Mexico, (2) Holiday Sale Kick Off on Sun., Nov. 17, (3) Annual Dec. Cash Awards Show and Reception on Sat., Dec. 7, (4) Valentine Show/Evelyn Cramer Reception on Feb. 8, (5) March/April (Carlsbad Ranch) Flower Fields Paint-In Exhibition and Sale (pending determination of their management), (6) SDAG Artist Studio and Garden Tour (May 3, 4, 10, or 11), (7) Del Mar Fair Demo in June, (8) Small Perceptions Show Reception on July 5, (9) Encinitas Library Clothes Line Sale on August 17, and (10) Additional Painting Trips, by bus, to Julian and other sites to be determined.

Changes in Procedures: Our new bookkeeper has already started changing our procedures, as you may have noticed if you got a check in the mail for "Gallery Sales". Receipts are not being included in the package as additional postage would be required. However, receipts will be kept at the Gallery for you to pick up. In addition, if you sold less than $10.00 in a given month, the bookkeeper will not issue a check until the amount of sales reaches a total of $10.00 or more. Checks will not be distributed more than once a month. The bookkeeper requests that all members cash their checks ASAP for record keeping purposes. We are also asking that you do not call the bookkeeper if you have a question for her. We are trying to keep our costs down, and she does (understandably) charge for her time transacting SDAG business, official or not. So, if you have any questions, please call Betty Sturdevan (753-7403) or Cyndy Brenneman (481-7904) and we will be happy to get an answer for you!

Thank you Loretta Phoenix! The new bookkeeper was very impressed with all the work Loretta Phoenix did during the past two years as our Treasurer. Artist Sales for 1995-1996 were over $40,000, Guild Expenses were $26,446, and we still managed to put $2,218 away in our CD, which brings our savings to $7,497. Needless to say this is a lot of work for someone who doesn't get a pay check! Our Proposed Budget for this year is $24,212 with a Projected Income of approximately $23,479-$24,209. Thanks again Loretta for all your hard work!

Vada Kimble has been elected our newest Life-Time Member. Her name will join Betty Sturdevan's in the new SDAG Directory. This honorary membership is one of the few ways we have of thanking those who have given their time and energy unstintingly to the Guild for so many years. We thank you Vada.

We also want to thank Wally Chase, who continues to make the cards for our monthly shows and for the Wall/Floor Renters work. Without him the show could not go on (at least not with the wonderful cards he provides us with monthly)!

ARTISTS NEEDED for the Artist Studio and Garden Tour: We are looking for artists (members only) who live in the area between Del Mar and Oceanside and have both Studios and Gardens that they are willing to open up to the public for one day to benefit the San Dieguito Art Guild and a Garden Club/Organization (to be determined). This event will be held on Sat. or Sun. the first or second weekend of May, 1997. Participating artists will each design a poster with the selection made by the benefiting organization in Feb., 1997. The poster will be offered for sale at the Off Track Gallery, at tour sites, at the benefiting organization site, and other sites around the county that agree to sell tickets ($10.00) and posters. The cost of the posters will be born by the Guild. This is a wonderful way to promote both you and your art, and our Art Guild! Collectors and art admirers are always interested in learning more about local artists, where they work, and the environment that inspires them! Please call me, Cyndy Brenneman (481-7904), if you are interested.

We are forming an Executive Committee to determine the future course of the San Dieguito Art Guild and Off Track Gallery. We are always looking for a better way to do things and we realize that there are members out there that have the experience to help us. We are particularly interested in members, or contacts of members, with business experience! Interested members please contact Cyndy Brenneman (481-7904).

Anyone wishing to sign up for Artist-of-the-Month should contact Pearl Cadwell. All prospective Artists-of-the-Month need to turn in their biography to Pearl four months prior to the opening of their exhibition. Also, Artists-of-the-Month must provide Shirley Hawley with a good quality (good values) photograph of a selected work two months prior to their exhibition date. Artists that don't provide this photo will have the SDAG logo run in place of their work in the Beach News ad.

NOVEMBER ARTIST-OF-THE-MONTH: CLAUDIA BROWN

Claudia Taylor Brown is known in Southern California for her vibrant watercolors and collages. A long-time resident of Carlsbad, she has exhibited her work in the North County area for many years. Often seen with sketchbook and pen or pencil in hand, she has dedicated herself to the study of art. Her training includes three years at Auburn University as well as numerous private classes in oil, sculpture, watercolor, and collage. Claudia is an avid traveler and enjoys sketching the things she sees during her travels. Her sketches and photographs combined with personal notes form the foundation of many of her finished pieces. This month Claudia is exhibiting a series of works that resulted from a trip she took to China in January, 1989. The exhibit tells several different stories, so the sketches are displayed in the order in which she did them. She has provided each piece with a caption taken from her personal notes so that viewers can share this rich experience with her. Claudia invites all SDAG members and friends to join her at the reception for her Sketches of China exhibit on Sunday, Nov. 10, from 2-4 p.m. at the Off Track Gallery.

NOVEMBER SHOW JUDGE AND DEMONSTRATOR: ROSEMARY ALICE BOOST

Rosemary Alice Boost will be giving us a demonstration on how to make paper for use as a water color medium. It is a rough form, and she will be showing us her process. Rosemary is a San Diego native and an extremely accomplished artist, teacher, and judge. She has exhibited her work widely in the San Diego area and has won numerous awards. Active for years in all levels of art education, she has been involved in many youth programs, including Bravo Workshop, After School Art, Studio Maureen, Artists-in-Schools; Young at Art Program, and Children's Creative Workshops in Del Mar, to name just a few. She has also been the Artist-in-Residence at many elementary schools and middle schools in the San Diego area. Rosemary is an experienced juror, and was the Assistant Superintendent for the Fine Arts Exhibition at the Del Mar Fair, 1996. She is affiliated with the National Women's Caucus for Art as well as COVA, where she served as the Artistic Director of Curated Exhibitions (1989-1993). Her work is exhibited at the Next Door Gallery in San Diego.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER:

As a matter of policy and in the spirit of participation, every member of the guild is welcome and encouraged to participate in the Monthly Shows, as Artist of the Month, as a Wall/Floor Renter, and in all other SDAG projects, trips, etc. No matter what your level of experience, student or professional artist, you are welcome. No one can be too "professional" or too much of a "beginner" to belong to SDAG. However, there is a price to pay - your time. As is the case with most volunteer organizations, too few of our members do too much of the work. We need you to give an occasional helping hand. In particular, we need you to handle one of the events we host during the year. Please call one of the board members and offer your assistance. We want to get to know you and your art. The better we know you, the better chance we have of selling your art. All Wall/Floor Renters who are not on the board will be asked to work at SDAG events. Hope to see you on November 17th at our Holiday Kick-Off Sale! (Spare receipt books and tax tables, as well as A-frames, will be available at the sale.)

GUILD AND GARDEN TOUR: We are still looking for artists (members only) who would like to participate in the upcoming Artist Studio and Garden Tour that will be taking place in May, 1997. Participating artists must live in or between Del Mar and Oceanside and have both studios and gardens that they are willing to open up to the public for one day to benefit the San Dieguito Art Guild and Quail Gardens. This event will be held on Sat. or Sun., the first or second weekend of May, 1997. Members who sign up for this event will each design a poster for a poster contest. The selection of the winning poster will be made by officials at Quail Gardens in Feb., 1997. The poster will then be reproduced and offered for sale at the Off Track Gallery, at tour sites, Quail Gardens, and other sites around the county that agree to sell tickets ($10.00) and posters. The cost of the posters will be born by the Guild. Please call Cyndy Brenneman (481-7904) if you are interested. We are especially interested in members in the Oceanside area!

Thank you to Pearl Cadwell, our Paint Rag editor for the past three years. Pearl has done a fantastic job keeping us all well informed about SDAG events and activities. Writing and editing the Paint Rag is a time intensive job and, in the process, Pearl has volunteered a lot of her time to our Guild over the last several years. We've been very lucky to have her. Thanks again Pearl for all your hard work and editorial skills!

GALLERY SITTERS: Our record keepers have been having some difficulty getting enough information about our sales. In some cases, the sales receipts have not been filled out completely and are missing one or more pieces of important information, such as 1) a description of the item sold, 2) the artist's name, 3) who sold the item, and 4) what form of payment was received (cash, check, credit card), and 5) credit card authorization numbers. If we don't get this information for each and every sale, it makes it exceedingly difficult to keep up our records properly. It is also a very tiring and time consuming task to try to backtrack and figure out this information after the fact. So, please, be sure to fill out your sales receipts completely! We thank you in advance for your help in this matter. Thanks!

Show checks and receipts will be mailed together unless a member requests otherwise. However, if you have alot of receipts and your envelope requires extra postage due to the increased weight, we will then be keeping your receipts in your "pocket" in the daily sales binder for you to pick up at a later date.

Wall/Floor Renters: Please note that any member who signs up for space as a Wall/Floor Renter, but who then turns down Wall/Floor Renter status when it is offered two times in succession, will be taken off the list.

Joan Schmidt has volunteered to do the Telephone Tree. Thank you Joan!

Junior Members must be 15-18 years of age. All regular SDAG show rules apply to its junior members.
