Sally Bly

SALLY BLY,

Sally, a Taipei native, is an accomplished artist devoting her talents primarily to the portrayal of flowers in watercolor. Impressed with the multitude and beauty of California's flowers, Sally feels that watercolor is the perfect medium to capture flowers' soft, sentimental feeling and to show the beauty which God created. Either painting directly from nature or from arrangements personally arranged, Sally gets close to their freshness and uses her Oriental and Occidental background and techniques to render beautiful, sensitive paintings. Her work has been exhibited at San Diego Art Institute, Brandon Gallery, Del Mar Fair, Mexicali B.C., Taiwan, R.O.C. She shares Studio #4 in Spanish Village Art Center, Balboa Park, with two partners. In addition to S.D.A.G, memberships include La Jolla Art Association, San Diego Watercolor Society, C.O.A.L., and San Diego Asiatic Art Guild. Her paintings are award winners in juried shows.

Pearl Cadwell

Yes, it's me, your editor. A native New Yorker, born and raised on Long Island's North Shore, my "Sea, Shore, and More" show is really about what has surrounded me all my life: Sailboats, Coastlines, Beaches, and, yes, Teapots. While pursuing a career in the business world, art classes, museums, and art literature were always a very important part of my life. Formal art classes began at Fordham U and St. John's U in NY and continued at Chouinard when I relocated to Southern California. Oils, pastels, and acrylics were put aside when I first picked up a watercolor brush and dipped it into that wonderful, fluid watercolor pigment. It was then that workshops with such noted artists as Rex Brandt, Robert E. Wood, Milford Zornes, and Joan McKasson began. As a founding member of The Artists' Studio and The Artists' Studio Gallery, both located on the Palos Verdes Peninsula, gallery exposure became a reality. Moving to Carlsbad introduced me to SDAG and The San Diego Watercolor Society with both organizations providing exhibiting space, educational opportunities, and fellow artists who have become dear friends. Please come by the Gallery with your friends on Sunday, March 3, to see "Sea, Shore, and More", have some refreshments, and visit with me. I'll be there from 10am to 4 pm.

The Giver of Life

"When the artist is alive in any person...he becomes an inventive, searching, daring, self-expressive creature. He becomes interesting to other people. He disturbs, upsets, enlightens, and he opens ways for a better understanding."

ARTIST OF THE MONTH: BOBBI HARRINGTON

Bobbi Harrington was born in Corpus Christi, Texas. As a child, she traveled extensively due to her father's military service. Her family finally settled in California in 1959. Bobbi's interests in art became apparent quite early in her life. In Junior High School and in High School she took all the art classes that she could, but after High School she had to put her art studies on hold to dedicate herself to full time work to support herself. Ms. Harrington has had many excellent teachers over the years and has attended many workshops, but a lot of her technique was self taught by trial and error. Bobbi enjoys a wide variety of subjects, although her first love is animals. She also enjoys doing portraits, seascapes, landscapes, desert scenes, etc. She feels "lucky to be able to do what I love, and that's painting, creating, and hoping to please the viewer as much as it pleases me to create my next piece." She has had several one-woman shows in Fallbrook and Carlsbad and has won numerous awards through the years. She was commissioned to do an 8-plate collectors edition for Lenox China in 1994 and 1995, which took 2 years to complete and was titled Just Cubs. She also has had her work reproduced on T-shirts that were exported to Japan. She has done many commissions, including portraiture for a San Bernadino Corporation and murals for couples in La Mesa and Carlsbad. Her work can be found in many private and corporate collections throughout the United States. Ms. Harrington was featured in Artists of Southern California, Volume II, and The National Artists Network, Premier Edition. Bobbi invites all her friends and fellow artists to join her at the reception for her The Things I Love exhibit on Sunday, August 17, from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Off Track Gallery.
