Dear Lisa,

I had the poster for Mothers Day Tour laminated @ Kinkos yesterday for $4.61 & hung it outside the Gallery under our sign as Shirley suggested. I put the receipt in Char Cee file.

I need you to make another poster & hang it inside the Pannikin on the far south side of the upstairs, there is a area reserved for hanging public announcements & we should use that space.

I will fax out more information today since Shirley is a little worried about sales. We need sunny & warm weather so people will want to be in the garden.

We also need the local papers do a article about the tour with pictures of the artists home & work that will bring the people in. Send to information & pictures to: Caros Von Son Nor & Susan Borsch @ the "Norht County Times, ABC" Solana Beach, CA. or call since they have deadlines. Carlos Von Son did a nice large article for the 101 Gallery & Susan Borsch did the same for the Fallbrook Garden Club Flower Show.

Best Regards, Barbara Mille

MOTHER'S DAY ARTISTS' STUDIO AND GARDEN TOUR

Post event mini-report

(more to follow next month)

A good time was had by all. Over 518 visitors were counted at at least one home (this included children and some who came back for a second visit). Some families spent hours at Artists' homes checking out the gardens, studios, art and homes. We were able to spend lots of time talking about the creative process. We accomplished our goal of introducing the San Diego community to how artists live and we also made some money for the guild and Quail Gardens. There will be more to report by our tour Chairman, Lisa Jackson-who did a bang-up job, and spent Sunday afternoon at Cindy Brenneman's when a designated docent was called away by an emergency. Thank-you to all of you who gave up your Mother's Day for someone else's Mother-what a great way to give back to our community! Thank-you too to the guild members who purchased a ticket and took the tour.

ABOUT OUR MEMBERS

Cyndy Brenneman-"Paint Rag" Editor
Active in the San Diego Watercolor Society too, Cyndy is Poster Girl for doing it all. Daughter of a Navy man and a mother who was a frustrated artist who retired from General Dynamics, her heritage is clearly in both camps. She started her carrier in art after retirement from the Navy in 1990. All the organization and leadership skills come from the Navy experience-she served as Commanding Officer of a unit on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay, and Administrative Officer of the Naval Station San Diego, in addition to many other jobs. Courses taken as a Fine Arts Major at Rider University in New Jersey, and a multitude of Extension courses gave her the background to pursue her quest for artistic happiness. This pursuit has included, watercolor, sculpture, glass blowing, pastel, oils, painted furniture and murals, floor cloths, and Encaustics-her latest and most satisfying medium. A member of the Coastal Painter's Critique Group, she is constantly striving for self improvement. Other loves include gardening, travel, her husband, dog, and reading. She is looking forward to more time to create when the "Paint Rag" is turned over to a lucky new editor in August!

SMALL PERCEPTIONS

Our Small Image Show is upon us. Jim Respass, our V.P. Computers is also show coordinator. Thank you Jim! The show prospectus is enclosed in this newsletter. There is a special Cartoon category this year in honor of the show judge, Greg Evans. We will need helpers-that's you! Call Bobbi Harrington to volunteer today.

JUNE ARTIST OF THE MONTH IS MIXED MEDIA PAINTER VIRGINIA HOLT

San Diego native Virginia Holt took private painting lessons as a child from a French Canadian teacher where she learned watercolors, pastels and oils. Her teacher told her she had a strong sense of color and this insight has followed her throughout her life. Whistler and Van Gogh inspired her and she was crazy about impressionism. High school art classes bored her, so in college she majored in French with a minor in German and Spanish but always had an eye on the visual arts. She went to Europe to sharpen her language skills. While there she did a self guided tour and study of museums, artists homes, Gothic architecture and Rose windows. The beautiful colors of the lead glass windows fascinated her. Then she went on to Geneva to model in art schools and museums. She came back to the U.S. in 1967 to graduate from Sacramento State, then headed for Mexico where she once again modeled in the art school in San Miguel Allende. While visiting the Art School of Mexico she saw skeins of wool and the jewel like colors excited her, so she tried weaving and became a designer of rugs and tapestries with her own cottage industry for 23 years. She also designed clothes that sold in local shops as well as Dallas, NY and Europe for ten years. Back in Del Mar, Virginia has started a new business painting Tromp L'oeil and Faux finishes as well as Floor mat painting. Join her at the Gallery on June 6 from 1:00-5:00 p.m.
