Demonstrator:

Patricia Watkins

Past President of both the San Dieguito Art Guild and the Rancho Santa Fe Art Guild, Patricia has given more to this organization than any ten artists combined! She knows how to sell, where to sell and when to sell originals, prints, cards, and jewelry, etc. Her awards include the Grumbacher Silver Medal and entry into the Western Federation of Watercolors Show. She has a line of greeting cards and limited edition prints, and has designed a line of enamel on silver jewelry for a Los Angeles Company, and a line of paintings for a puzzle company. And she still has time to teach! Tired yet? Patricia never seems to. Come share her energy at the June General meeting.

July Demonstrator: Greg Evans -Cartoonist

Greg Evans is the creator of the nationally syndicated comic strip, LUANN, which appears in over 300 newspapers in the United States and abroad. Captivated by cartooning at an early age, he admits he was "Born with the 'toon disease". Raised in Burbank, home of Disney Studios, Greg dreamed of someday working for Walt, giving life to Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck. Even in elementary school, he entertained and amazed his classmates with accurate, spontaneous sketches of Disney characters. But then he discovered the newspaper comic page and decided he wanted to become a comic strip cartoonist. By the age of 12, he was creating his own comic strips. In 1970, he graduated from Cal State Northridge with a bachelor of arts degree. His major was art-not cartooning-but watercolor, printmaking and graphic design. Greg went on to get his teaching credential and secured his first classroom assignment at Central Union High School in El Centro, California, teaching art. He taught for four years, got married, traveled the world, lived in Australia for two years and returned to Colorado Springs where he landed a job as a graphic artist for a television station. Today, Greg lives and works at his home in San Marcos. A member of the San Diego Watercolor Society, he grabs his easel whenever he gets the chance and heads out to paint San Diego county. LUANN was born in March 1985. His goal in LUANN is to touch reader's hearts as well as their funny bone-to enlighten as well as entertain-join Greg at the July General Meeting where he will delight us with his demonstration!

August Demonstrator: Bill Lignante -Courtroom Illustrator

As a child of five, Bill copied comic section characters from the Sunday papers. An artist was born and for 26-years Bill Lignante worked for ABC Network Television as their courtroom illustrator. Now retired and living in Carlsbad, his 50-year career as a creative artist has also included syndicated comic strips. In the 1960's courtroom illustrators were without job descriptions (sounds just like any other artist!) . His editors gave him complete freedom and he worked closely with network reporters in the courtroom. A graduate of Pratt Institute of Art, Bill will be our demonstrator at the August General Meeting-be there to hear about his experiences with the trials of Charles Manson and Sirhan Sirhan, and many more.

August Artist of the Month: Michelle Lentz

Michelle's youngest daughter will join her sister as a college student and Michelle will have a little more time on her hands to paint (stand-by Turner, your unofficial record for world's most prolific artist is in danger!). Michelle paints in oils, acrylics, pastel, and watercolor, and also makes glass jewelry and paints on silk. Please stay tuned to this section for more information on our August Artist of the Month- the one and only Michelle Lentz. There is no Artist of the Month in July due to the Small Perceptions Show, and September and October are yet to be announced.

In 1970, he graduated from Cal State Northridge with a bachelor of arts degree. His major was art - not cartooning - but watercolor, printmaking and graphic design. Greg went on to get this teaching credential and secured his first classroom assignment at Central Union High School in El Centro, California, teaching art. He taught for four years, got married, traveled the world, lived in Australia for two years and returned to Colorado Springs where he landed a job as a graphic artist for a television station. Today, Greg lives and works at his home in San Marcos. A member of the San Diego Watercolor Society, he grabs his easel whenever he gets the chance and heads out to paint San Diego County. LU-ANN was born in March 1985. His goal in LUANN is to touch reader's hearts as well as their funny bone - to enlighten as well as entertain - join Greg at the July General Meeting where he will delight us with his demonstration!

August Demonstrator Bill Lignante - Courtroom Illustrator

As a child of five, Bill copied comic section characters from the Sunday papers. An artist was born and for 26 years Bill Lignante worked for ABC Network Television as their courtroom illustrator. Now retired and living in Carlsbad, his 50-year career as a creative artist has also included syndicated comic strips. In the 1960's courtroom illustrators were without job descriptions (sound just like any other artist!). His editors gave him complete freedom and he worked closely with network reporters in the courtroom. A graduate of Pratt Institute of Art, Bill will be our demonstrator at the August General Meeting - be there to hear about his experiences with the trials of Charles Manson and Sirhan Sirhan, and many more.

August Artist of the month: Michelle Lentz

Michelle's youngest daughter will join her sister as a college student and Michelle will have a little more time on her hands to paint (stand-by Turner, your unofficial record for world's most prolific artist is in danger!). Michelle paints in oils, acrylics, pastel, and watercolor, and also makes glass jewelry and paints on silk. Please stay tuned to this section for more information on our August Artist of the month - the one and only Michelle Lentz. There is Artist of the Month in July due to the Small Perceptions Show, and September and October are yet to be announced.

July Artists of the Month

Since the "Small Perception's Show" did not require the back wall, the outgoing Board of Directors will show their art in this space for the month of July. Each Board member is bringing the equivalent of a half sheet painting. We hope you enjoy the show!

August Demonstrator: Bill Lignante -Courtroom illustrator

As a child of five, Bill copied comic section characters from the Sunday papers. An artist was born and for 26-years Bill Lignante worked for ABC Network Television as their courtroom illustrator. Now retired and living in Carlsbad, he is active with the Carlsbad Art Council and the La Costa Library Committee. His 50-year career as a creative artist has also included syndicated comic strips. In the 1960's courtroom illustrators were without job descriptions (sounds just like any other artist!) . His editors gave him complete freedom and he worked closely with network reporters in the courtroom. A graduate of Pratt Institute of Art, Bill will be our demonstrator at the August General Meeting-be there to hear about his experiences with the trials of Charles Manson, Sirhan Sirhan, and many more.

August Artist of the Month: Jim Respass

What better way could there be for you to meet our nominee for the next President, than to be introduced through his photography. Dr. Jim Respass, currently our V. P. Computers, is a fifth generation Californian who was born and raised in San Francisco. As a molecular biologist, he was a founding scientist of Viagene, Inc., San Diego and holds seven issued U. S. August Demonstrator: Bill Lignante - courtroom Illustrator.

As a child of five, Bill copied comic section characters from Sunday papers. An artist was born and for 26 years Bill Lignante worked for ABC Network Television as their courtroom illustrator. Now retired and living in Carlsbad, he is active with the Carlsbad Art Council and the La Costa Library Committee. His 50-year career as a creative artist has also included syndicated comic strips. In the 1960’s courtroom illustrators were without job descriptions (sounds just like any other artist!). His editors gave him complete freedom and he worked closely with network reporters in the courtroom. A graduate of Pratt Institute of Art, Bill will be our demonstrator at the August General Meeting - be there to hear about his experiences with the trials of Charles Manson, Sirhan Sirhan, and many more.

August Artist of the Month: Jim Respass

What better way could there be for you to meet our nominee for the next President, than to be introduced through his photography. Dr. Jim Respass, currently our V.P. Computers, is a fifth generation California who was born and raised in San Francisco. As a molecular biologist, he was a founding scientist of Viagene, Inc., San Diego and holds seven issued U.S. Patents in the area of human gene therapy. How does a scientist become the nominee for President of an Art Guild you ask? Renaissance Man that he is, Jim also studied art history, studio and Plein air drawing, and photography in addition to biology. Since 1996, Jim has devoted full time to Fine Art Photography with emphasis in black and white and photo digital imaging.

September Demonstrator: Claudia Brown

CRITIQUE GROUP TO START

If you would like to be part of this critique group, bring one work of art to Ecke Hall at 1:00 p.m. (1/2 hour before the next General Meeting, Sept. 2nd.)

Information/Changes For Wall Renters

Due to the increase in number of entries in the Monthly Show and to a prior calculation in size of wall space devoted to each artist that incorrectly included the moldings in the calculation, the Board of Director voted that the amount of space allowed for Half Wall Renters be changed to 12.75 sq. ft. or 30" x 62" and for Full Wall Renters to 25 sq. ft. or 60 x 60. Allowance of 4 inches between paintings in all directions is included in this figure. Pat Watkins will provide all Wall Renters with a written explanation of the above before the next rotation. She will include some samples of painting size combinations that will fit into these parameters. Please call Pat (Tori Nelson after September 1st.) if you have any questions concerning the above. We recommend you make a template and ensure your paintings fit in the allowed space before you bring them to the gallery on rotation day.

Encinitas City Hall Show

Joan Grine will notify all artists who currently have art at the Hall of the date for removal. The Guild will not be showing their art during the Fall at City Hall.
