Let's see the pictures, Shirley! Recently back from a trip to France, our Calendar Chair, Shirley Maier, visited chateaus, and the famous Beach in which is the Normandy Region. Then she headed to Paris'

The Musee Marmottan Monet, which is exhibiting at least 150 paintings by Monet, with works from Giverny and prior times on different floors. It was a wonderful, inspirational trip!

Del Mar Fair

Barbara Mille took 2nd place cash award & rosette ribbon for her abstract quilt watercolor. Isabella Breasted's "11 x 14" photograph, Crystal Pier At Sunset, won an Honorable Mention. Other proud exhibitors were Sally Bly, Ruth Dennis, Suzanne Geller, Joan Grine, Sally Harvey, Pat Macri, Barbara Mille, Ora Marlene O'Toole, Tori Nelson, Dot Renshaw, Jim Respass, B. J. Simon, Patricia Watkins. Note: These exhibitors were known at time of printing. For those not listed, please send me a notice in writing for publication next month.

Each year, the SDAG's Board of Directors selects 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners for all art entries at the Del Mar Fair Art Exhibition.

1st Vera Sickinger's pastel, entitled, Santa Fe.

2nd - Mother Sees All, sculpture by Janet Parrish-McCann

3rd - Janet Lee's monoprint, Gothic Demolish IV.

Artists in all media are congratulated for demonstrating the depth and breadth of creative talent available in the San Diego Arts Community.

Avoiding Creative U-Turns

Priorities: List your creative goals for the year. List your creative goals for the month. List your creative goals for the week. Read this aloud to yourself. Post this above your work area. Read this aloud daily!

Member Kudos

Now at David's Coffeehouse, 3766 5th Avenue, San Diego you can see a solo exhibition by Jeffrey R. Brosbe entitled, Eye Candy, a collection of male and female nudes. Runs June 15 to July 13, 2000. Reception Sat., June 17. Also, his photographic works have been accepted in the 2000 All Media Juried Exhibition, at Palos Verdes Art Center, Rancho Palos Verdes, California, June 9 - July 22, 2000.

Joan Grine is displaying at the Cardiff Library for month of June. In July, she will be guest artist at the Cottage Gallery in Old Town. Patricia Watkins, along with 11 local artists and SDAG members, are displaying, Coastal Scenes, during July and August at Studio of Art and Design, 616 Stevens St., Suite B, Solana Beach. All are invited to the artists' reception on Sunday, July 9 from 1:30 - 4:00 p.m.

Impressionist oil paintings by Darlene Katz and three dimensional pieces by Alessandra Colfi-Chan are currently on display at the Artists' FORUM Gallery, 4072 Adams Avenue, the Kensington area of San Diego. Reception Sunday, June 11.

Photographer, JoAnn Ginepra's Bringing Bodie Back, was chosen for June cover of Physician magazine; also her, Blue Moon, received inside cover of Arizona Highways. At Sony Art Walk, JoAnn's, Inspiration, was rated the "most exciting entry" in its category, and "Castle Combe England" earned the President's Medal Year 2000 award from the Scott Watson Salon. Way to go, Jo!

Food for Thought

Solitude is about creating time each day to allow your imagination to flourish. It's about setting limits every day with family, friends and relatives. It's about communicating to significant others that creating works of art is your career, not a hobby you fit in after serving everyone else's needs. It's realizing that exercise and play enhance creative powers. It's about facing your fears and resentments which lead to artistic starvation, self-doubt and frustration. Just as critical to your well-being and artistic fruitfulness is the active involvement with other supportive artists. The interaction with a family of artists (like SDAG) is nourishing to the artistic spirit like no other.

As a first year SDAG volunteer and board member, I can honestly say it has done wonders for me. I've learned more about becoming a productive artist from attending SDAG's monthly demonstrations, and talking to professional artists in the guild, then I did in four years of college art classes. I've overcome paralyzing fears which blocked my ability to set creative goals and stick to it.

At the risk of sounding very corny, I really bless the day our founding members started this guild. If you haven't spent time at the gallery with the likes of long time members, Hildegard Stubbs, Betty Sturdevan, Loretta Phoenix or Lysinka Otto, you are missing a real treat and a lifetime of knowledge.

We are thrilled to present wildlife watercolorist, Joe Garcia as our special guest demonstrator for our August 3rd meeting. In his recent article in The Artist's Magazine, Joe writes: "Breaking free of traditional painting formats gives you a wider range of artistic possibilities, while giving your subjects a whole new vitality." Joe keeps a creative edge by using odd size formats such as: 6-1/2" x 29-1/2." Having trained at Art Center College in Pasadena, Joe now resides and works in Julian and teaches one night a week. A member of the Society of Animal Artists, his work appears in private and corporate collections across the U.S. & Canada. To see more of his work, visit his web site at: www.joegarcia.com

bistre: a thin monochromatic under-painting.

alla prima: the act of starting and completing a piece in a single session without preliminary layers or drawing.

broken color: a process of applying two different colors next to one another and allowing the viewer's eye to mix them from a distance.

impasto: laying paint down thick enough so it stands above the surface of the canvas and allows viewers to see the ridges of the brushstrokes.

sgraffito: scratching away paint to reveal the layer of paint beneath it.

San Dieguito Art Guild GENERAL INFORMATION

History

San Dieguito Art Guild (SDAG) was founded over thirty years ago as a non-profit organization dedicated to furthering artistic understanding in the local community. SDAG is also dedicated to fostering the artistic growth of individual members through social and educational events. Six years ago we moved to the Off Track Gallery, where we enjoy an excellent relationship with the Pannikin Restaurant. Together we share the Old Santa Fe Train Station, an important local landmark of historical importance.

Location, Hours, and Exhibits

The Old Santa Fe Train Station is located at 510 N. Highway 101, between Encinitas Blvd. and Leucadia Blvd. The gallery is open daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and is closed only on Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, and Easter Sunday. The Off Track Gallery has an ever changing exhibit of art by over 200 local artists. This format is achieved in several different ways. SDAG has monthly membership shows, which are judged by San Diego area professional artists. Each month a different guild member is featured as Artist of the Month, and 35 to 40 members show work upstairs and downstairs on an ongoing basis. This adds up to a display of over 250 works of art in our gallery at any given time. Because our painters, photographers, potters, jewelers, and glass artists are local, many customers find that our artist-set prices are extremely reasonable.

Considering that many of our artists are published, collected and have won show awards, the customer is indeed lucky to find us.

Membership

Membership is $40 annually per person and $55 per couple, for two artists within the same family.

A student membership of $15 is currently available for artists ages 15 to 18. Dues are payable by September 30 of each year. A "Lifetime" membership has been established an honorary gift to thank extraordinary individuals who have given many years of service. Two members, Vada Kimble and Betty Sturdevan, have earned this honor. As a member you are required to devote time to the guild in one or more ways. You may be required to work on a project, a committee or in the gallery as a sitter. Once you have paid your membership, please contact the job coordinator.

Membership Show Regulations

All members may submit one piece of original art to the monthly membership show. The gallery committee has the right to refuse any entry that fails to meet guild standards. Frames must have multi-strand wire for hanging. Plexiglass or equivalent must be used on frames larger than 22" x 24"; pastels excluded. Maximum entry size is 48" on any side including frame. The monthly show is judged by a professional artist who awards ribbons in Water Media (watercolor and acrylics under glass), Oil/Acrylic Media, and other media categories. If there are five or more entries in any given media category it becomes a separate award category.
