

the printing costs, obtain a check for the amount of printing from Virginia Holt or Char Cee (apx. $240 for 2,000 cards). Send a copy of receipts to Virginia Holt for accounting purposes.

4. March 20th-Image of publicity poster and logo sent to KPBS for news release in April and May.

5. March 21-Street Signs information deadline. Final date for telling Charlene Bonney (760-753-2990) the number of signs you need (plan for one at house and one at each entrance to your street and one or two at major cross road. You should indicate the arrow direction. Judiannne Shannon is looking for a sample from 1998 tour.

6. March 21th-Flyer available for pick up at Offtrack Gallery. I will design and print these.

7. March 26th-1,050 Tickets printed and numbered and ready with logs for distribution to: Offtrack Gallery 250 tickets, Artists in tour 9 artists x 20 tickets each= 180 tickets, Quail Gardens 300 tickets, Cyndy Brennenman 50 for advance mail order tickets, other distribution points are being found by Hildegard Stubbs (you might call her to see how she is doing (I suggested Rhino Art, The Grand Galleria, and San Diego Watercolor Society, any other ideas anyone?), 25 tickets to Cathy Breslaw as complimentary tickets to the media and City of Encinitas. Hand carry tickets to meetings of SDWS 15 tickets, SDAG 30 tickets, COAL 15 tickets- we need volunteers to take tickets to these meetings. I will have information sheets and a package ready for tickets and log insertion.

8. March 31st-Publicity Poster done and along with flyers and Tickets taken to distribution points. Still looking for someone to do this?

9. April 1st Mail Modern Post Cards to our distribution list which will consist of the people who have attended our tour in the past and our better buyers at the Offtrack Gallery. I will have labels printed by March 21st and will buy stamps and mail post cards.

10. April 27th- Take in May Monthly Show- Paintings from the Poster contest (Artists with homes on the tour Char Cee's winning poster are the only ones we hope to have room for) may be entered in the Monthly Show at the normal entry fee of $10 no matter what the size, and will be judged- we will not worry about membership or size, but please keep in mind that there is only the back wall and at least ten artists showing. Call Cyndy or Jim Respass if you are concerned about this. Since many of you did not enter the Publicity Poster Contest, please call me if you do not plan to enter the May show. I will let other artists participating in the tour enter in your place.

11. April 5th - Flyer Distribution to artists attending April Meeting. They will be requested to distribute to libraries, art supply stores and other locations they think appropriate.

12. April 5th Decent List completed and sent to artists on tour. Decent directions for taking tickets/names and selling art work sent out, Jan James (760-754-2126) has volunteered to assist Jo Bailey with this project. I will need to compile list so far...hopefully this will be included with this memo to Jo and Jan. I am sure we need more volunteers.

13. April 5th Street Signs taken to the Offtrack Gallery for tour artists to pick up. Please do not leave these at Gallery they take up space. Also call ahead of time to make sure they are there. Charlene should have them packaged with your name on them.

Other information: Publicity is being done by Cathy Breslaw. San Diego Home and Garden requested information and pictures and said they would give us an article. We may get in the travel section at Sunst, but no article. We have a paid ad with Char Cee's Poster painting on KPBS through COVA to be aired in Apr and May. I will start my normal publicity releases to 78 media outlets. Channel 10 has taken an interest in us and has interviewed The Artist of The Month and aired spots on the Morning bulletin. Janet Finney is in charge of the Saturday event at Quail Gardens.

What: June '01 Featured Artists -Title of Show "Under the Palms"

- ♦ Who: Alison Christler, Artist
- ♦ When: The Month of June
- ♦ Reception: Sunday, June 3, 1:00-4:00 p.m.
- ♦ Where: The OffTrack Gallery,
located at 510 North Coast Highway 101,
Encinitas. Co-located with the Pannikin
Coffee & Tea in the old Encinitas Train Station.
- ♦ Hours: Open every day 9-6.

Christler has had a life long love of Palm trees and is now incorporating them into her artwork: sometimes blatantly, sometimes subtly. Many media are used: oil, acrylic, watercolor, collage, woodcut, and drawing. The mood is whimsical, with palm fronds sometimes sprouting from the neck of the figure, sometimes from the scalp as a hairdo. Hearts sprout from one palm trunk along with a person's hands; other fronds form a bed for a person sleeping in the shade of a palm. These works and others form the theme of her June Featured Artist show at the Offtrack Gallery. The public is invited to a reception for Christler's work on Sunday, June 3rd, 1:00-4:00 p.m.

SAN DIEGUITO ART GUILD'S MONTHLY MEETING

Who: Ruth Platner, Director of the Oceanside Art Museum Art School

When: June 7th, 2001 1:30-3:30

Where: Quail Gardens, Quail Gardens Road, Encinitas, in the Ecke Building.

Platner will give a demonstration on life drawing. Please bring a sketchpad and pencil so you can join in this "How to" session. This demonstration is open to all visitors free of charge.

1st BIGGEST LITTLE GALLERY ON THE COAST

Stop by the old Santa Fe Railroad station when you are in the lovely beach city of Encinitas. Inside the train station you will find the Pannikin Coffee & Tea on the ground level and downstairs the "Offtrack Gallery". Behind the desk are the friendly artists/members who run the gallery. They are always ready to answer your questions about the local artists who exhibit their work at the Gallery. The Gallery houses one of the largest collections of artist greeting cards on the coast as well as framed and unframed original paintings, photographs, prints, pottery, jewelry, and more. Gallery hours are: 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily-Location: 510 North Coast Highway, 101, Encinitas, CA, 92024-Ph: 760-942-3636.

Cyndy:

Got your email. Don't know if i can participate on the sat, at quail. will let you know.
Have an update on pr.....
North county times is definitely doing a story on us, will be in on Thurs. May10th, not before, I tried. This is what they did last time too and it worked just fine. also, they will have us in their calendar section too sometime this month. pomerado newspapers will do a story. don't know how big, maybe week of April 23rd in their 'Entertainment sections', will keep you posted. Have faxed again to carmel valley news, entertainer, coast news, sun newspapers, la jolla light. asked Pat(a long time ago) to handle rancho santa fe papers. they have never been helpful to me because I don't live in the ranch. Still trying to convince Mary James of the union tribune to do a story, anyway we've made friends and iwill send her tickets, maybe next year. Guy at sun newspapers is a creep, but at least hoping for calendar mentions, same with coast news - they have undergone staff changes. I used to be able to get thru to editor easily, and now, after a month am still trying. they are not too helpful though I'm sure we'll be in the calendar section. Oh well, that's it for now!! will need to play by ear getting together since Micah is off all week, maybe late afternoon tomorrow or wed.? we could meet or I could go to you or vice versa. let me know.

Hi Cyndy:

Just finished with the writer for UT. Appointment was arranged to photograph Charlene's home and gardens. The only question is how big an article this will be. I'm a bit worried because if it is big and people actually read it, we may get tons of people. We will therefore have tons of last minute sales and I hope we'll have enough tickets. I emailed her to ask that question so I hope she'll answer. We should be very sure that all people at Quail, offtrack, and all the other locations have enough tickets and are given instructions about what to do if they run out of tickets. It doesn't hurt to be prepared.

I really hope these articles turn out to be good!

Cathy

Hi Cyndy:

6 am and saw the article in night and day. It's inside on the cover of the "North County" section. It's actually a good spot. Photo of Charlene's garden is in bl and wh but is fine. The only issue is that they give the phone # of Quail 436-9236 and says tickets can be purchased there or at the Pannikin, no phone # listed. I suggest you warn the pannikan and quail so we don't loose ticket sales.they may get phone calls. It does say the event benefits San Dieguito art guild, are we listed in the phone directory? I thought I made everything clear to the writer of the article but I guess i have more to learn about writers! It should work fine. By the way, no volunteers for sunday have contacted me at all . I will try to call except I wasn't given the phone#'s for everyone coming. Was the plan that they wouldjust show up? that would be ok too. Also, we got a 1/3 page article in all the Pomerado papers with color photos of one of my paintings and one of pat's. It goes in 3 papers and came out a week ago.(Writer mailed me the article) Looks good. saw the decor and style too. hope we get a good turn out. will buy the north county times later to see what they did! Thanks. Cathy Homes open for our third annual Mother's Day Weekend Artists' Studio and Garden Tour.

Virginia Holt, Del Mar

Holt is a multi media and faux painter who will share the spot light with Char Cee Colosia, the winner of this year's poster contest and with watercolor artist, Barbara Mille.

Diane K. Smith, Encinitas

Smith's progress on her garden has been tracked by tour goers for the past few years. Smith has added a pool and guesthouse/office complex and has remodeled her studio for this event! Her water colors share the lime light with the work of fellow painters Chris Weatherby and Larry Parker and with the creative photography of San Diego Art Guild President Jim Respass.

Patricia Watkins, Rancho Santa Fe

Watkins lovely home and English Garden sit on the edge of the golf course. Wandering the garden and seeing her huge studio, the envy of every artist in San Diego, is a great way to pass time with your Mom. Pat has invited wood sculptor, Dale Steffen to show his work. In addition, horticulturist, Dan Cannon will be available for your questions about the plants in her garden.

Cathy Breslau, Olivenha

Mixed media artist, Breslau is a nationally known, award winning artist, who has invited metal sculptor, Elton Ebanks back for the second year. Breslau's Rose Garden offers something for every rose lover, and her interior paint job is a feast for the eyes!

Jarlene Katz, Carlsbad

Katz opens her new home for the first time for this event. Her oil paintings are joined by the woodwork of Sean Tubbs and the Raku Ceramics of Len Ozerkis. Katz has landscaped her backyard just for this event and it should be exciting to see the outcome.

Charlene Bonney, Encinitas

Bonney is joined at her beach house by watercolor artist, Betty Shurdevan. Bonney is a multi media artist, who is also a fashion designer and a home and garden remodel addict. Her small garden is enchanting. It contains a Japanese style guesthouse and her garden walls offer a hidden surprise, they are made of baled hay.

Alison Christler, Carlsbad

Christler's site overlooks Los Bataquitos Lagoon and the Pacific Ocean. This new home is located in a gated community and offers a wonderful example of what treasures can be created in a small space. Christler's artwork compliments the breathtaking landscape of exotic palm trees and the one of a kind swimming pool. The watercolor's of artist Hildegard Stubbs can also be seen at this location.

Pamela Weisberg, Carlsbad

The oil paintings of Weisberg are a perfect compliment for her romantic home. Working out of her converted garage/studio you will appreciate her whimsical wild life paintings.

Jo Bailey, Oceanside

Bailey's custom home sits near the lagoon. Her bold acrylic paintings fill the house and the large studio that is also a haven for her many feline companions. Note Bailey's collection of exotic artwork collected during her many adventures abroad. Oil painter, Nola Pearl and watercolor artist Linda Iresdale join Bailey for the day and welcome you to this great home that represents the California lifestyle.
